

Ratification Is Discussed [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Paris, Oct. 25.—The supreme council this morning discussed the possible date for the formal ratification of the German peace treaty. It was said the date probably would be fixed at next Tuesday's meeting of the council.

Official of Linotype Companies Succumbs [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] London, Oct. 25.—Sir Joseph Lawrence, chairman of the International Linotype company and a director of the American Linotype company of New York, died suddenly yesterday.

MENZIES IS CHOICE OF SECOND WARD TO SUCCEED AID. TRUE

William W. Menzies, fuel dealer, was nominated for Alderman from the Second ward to succeed James True, at a special caucus of citizens of that ward held in the city hall last evening. The council will probably elect Mr. Menzies at the special meeting to be held Monday night.

It took three ballots before a majority was declared. There were three other candidates in the running, Thomas Stoddard, L. F. Shurtleff and John Stoddard. Mr. Menzies was nominated but asked to have his name withdrawn as he felt he could not devote the necessary time to the duties of the office.

The vote on the first ballot was: Stoddard 7, Menzies 5, Shurtleff 3, Stoddard 2. Second ballot, Stoddard 7, Stoddard 3, Third ballot, Menzies 10, Stoddard 7.

A resolution was then drawn up to be presented to the council Monday night, requesting that Mr. Menzies be elected.

Mayor T. E. Welsh was unanimously chosen chairman of the caucus, and Mr. A. A. Moerer was named secretary.

FRIENDS OF IRELAND HEAR STIRRING TALK

A very enthusiastic meeting of the friends of Irish freedom was held last evening at the K. of C. hall. Edwin MacHugh, a native of Ireland, made a stirring appeal to every liberty loving American to stand for the principle of self-determination for Ireland. Rev. Dean E. Reilly also gave an address, followed by W. H. Dougherty, Rev. J. Baccanta and J. J. Doolan.

The opportunities for women reporters certainly are not great, because women cannot compete with men. A woman reporter is as much out of place climbing over the ruins of a wreck as in "covering" a murder in the corner saloon. Nor has she the physical strength to endure the pressure and irregular hours.

There are opportunities, though, as "special reporters" of women's clubs, conventions, and society news. The chances for promotion here are not great. The average salary is never higher than $30 a week.

For the clever girl, with a good general education and live interests in current happenings, who is naturally industrious and sociable, there are three attractive openings.

The woman's page offers a splendid chance for the intelligent woman editor, not only to instruct and help many women readers, but to make it of such a caliber that the men will read it too.

The other two are "feature" and "free lance" work. The feature is general, to suit the editor's needs, and the free lance work is independent of any newspaper, a good chance for the venture capitalist who wants to "strike out on her own." The best market for free lance writers is the Sunday magazine.

When we consider that most large universities have established departments of journalism in which many women are enrolled, that newspapers are demanding more and more specialized work, and that more women read the paper than ever before, we must see a brighter day ahead for the woman reporter.

(Next week: "Kindergarten Teacher.")

Added donations made it possible for the rummage sale to continue today. The committee announced this morning that the sale will be open this evening after supper if there is still goods to be sold.

Every day the sale has been well patronized, many people. Quantities of goods have been disposed of. The washing machine and one sewing machine have not been sold. Both are in good condition.

Proceeds of the sale will go to the Janesville Center, which is under the direction of the City Federation of Women's clubs.

Merchants have been donating many articles of clothing.

"Y" Boys Color Picture in Membership Campaign

With the purpose of boosting along the financial and membership campaign at the "Y," a color picture has been hung on the wall in the boys' room. The picture is an outline of the Y. M. C. A. building and is divided into several blocks. Each block is numbered one of the blocks is colored red. The purpose is to cover the whole building red.

The employed boys are put on the red, the high school boys on one section and the grade school boys on another. The outline was over half filled this morning and as all the boys are now working hard, it is expected that a large number of memberships will be brought in during the day.

Many other posters urging the boys to speed up in their work have been put on the walls.

In the boys' department the Yale team, headed by Francis Crowley is leading. Running close second are Harvard led by Kenneth Bick; Princeton led by Leo Powers; and Cornell led by Harry Kelly.

TRAVELETTE

By NIKSAH.

There are plans afoot for the government to beautify the reservation at Hot Springs, Arkansas, making the place worthy of its position as the great American spa, or healing spring—the peer in popularity and fame of the great European baths.

Many Americans are now aware that Hot Springs is a government reservation. As a matter of fact it is the oldest of the great system of national parks, monuments, reservations and forests which the American people now own.

Hot Springs was made a reservation by the government in 1832 in order that the real properties of the waters might be accessible to all, and not exploited by capital. Unfortunately, the reservation was made only large enough to take in the springs themselves, and the town crowds all about them, when they should be in a center of a great park. There is a free bath house maintained by the government, and other more elaborate ones operated for profit by concessionaires.

It is a curious fact that no one has been able to discover why the Hot Spring waters are so beneficial. They contain no chemicals that are of special value, so far as can be discovered. It is claimed by some that radioactivity is the secret of their effect. Others say that their benefits are purely imaginary. This can hardly be the case, however, for many have been coming to these springs for hundreds of years, and going away feeling stronger and younger. The Indians made them a neutral place in time of war, the early settlers traveled for many days through the wilderness to reach them. They were probably the fountain of youth, rumor of which started Ponce de Leon on his travels. And today, they are one of the favorite recreations and recuperatives of that modern hero, the weary business man.

NEWS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

WHAT GIRLS CAN BE

NEWSPAPER WORKER

The girl who would just love to write, is as frequent as the older woman whose friends have always told her "she should have made a fortune out of her pen."

Fondness for the work is undoubtedly necessary for the girl who would succeed in newspaper work. Not only must she possess a keen eye for the news, but she must have a good command of the English language, a good understanding of the principles of journalism, and a good knowledge of the business of the newspaper.

There are plenty of people, including editors, who give little encouragement to the woman journalist.

From the "Pulse" school in South Carolina, which Principal Lowth had in this month's issue of the Normal Instructor, entitled "Assignment of the Reading Lesson in the Upper Grades."

Miss Marie Dobson has an article in the Wisconsin Journal of Education on "Observing Thanksgiving in the Country School." She will write a similar article on the Christmas Exercises.

There will be a social at the school taught by Miss Agnes McIntyre, joint district 2, Porter, Halloween night. Principal Lowth will give an illustrated lecture.

"Teachers of the training school will attend the state teachers' meeting at Milwaukee, Nov. 8, 7 and 8. The school will be closed Thursday, Friday, Nov. 6 and 7.

The October number of the Rock County Educational Bulletin was sent to the rural teachers today.

Two box socials are being planned by rural teachers in celebration of Halloween. Miss Claire Helgen, teacher of the Avon Center school district No. 2, will give an entertainment Friday evening consisting of a program by the children and an address on "Consolidation" by a member of the state department of education.

In the town of Beloit, district 8, a box social and program will be given on the same night. Miss Nellie Olson is the teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Babcock, Beloit, have welcomed a daughter, Marion Elizabeth, to their home. Mrs. Babcock was formerly Miss Frances McCabe, a teacher in the town of La Prairie.

Miss Belle Marshall of this city took the teachers' examinations at the court house Friday.

"Hallowe'en Frights"—Weird, spooky and fantastic—Razpook's on So. Main St.

WOMAN DEFENDANT IN ASSAULT CASE

An assault and battery case of unusual type is listed to be heard by Judge H. L. Maxwell in municipal court at 10 o'clock this morning. The woman is the plaintiff while the man is the defendant, an exceptional occurrence in court circles.

The case was brought by Otto Mink against Mrs. William Wells, town of Bradford, for alleged brutal treatment. Mrs. Wells when charged in municipal court yesterday entered a plea of not guilty to the charge through her attorney, O. A. Oestreich, and asked for a hearing which was set for Nov. 7. Thomas S. Nolan represents the plaintiff.

Come to the supper tonight, 5-8, at Carroll Methodist Church.

STUDENTS TO WRITE IN NAVY ESSAY CONTEST

High schools in the state are asked by the navy recruiting station at 222 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, to enter into the essay contest which will run from Nov. 1 to 15 inclusive; each school entered to submit two essays; each essay to have at the top of paper, name of writer, high school, and date; essays must arrive at the U. S. recruiting station, 222 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, not later than noon Nov. 17.

Great care has been taken in selecting our weekly specials. We have tried a great many combinations, but this week's special is by far the best we ever made.

Carmel and Peanut Brittle can be had at all dealers.

SHURTLEFF CO.

WANTED—Room in private family. Can furnish best of references. Address 89 case Gazette.

NOTICE

On Oct. 20, 1919, the board of directors of the Mut. Town Ins. Co., of Lima and Johnston voted an assessment on all policies, to pay losses, the same to be paid to either of the directors, to the Bank of Milton or at the Commercial Bank in Milwaukee, on or before December 15, 1919.

Date Lima Center, Wis., Oct. 24, 1919.

ORRA D. GOULD, Sec'y.

Great care has been taken in selecting our weekly specials. We have tried a great many combinations, but this week's special is by far the best we ever made.

Carmel and Peanut Brittle can be had at all dealers.

SHURTLEFF CO.

Come to the supper tonight, 5-8, at Carroll Methodist Church.

Training School Notes

Mother's meetings are being held this month in the rural schools under the direction of the training school faculty. Friday, Miss Ella Jacobson and Miss Grace Boyle, attended a meeting at the school taught by Miss Irene Loomis near Evansville. Miss Marie Dobson also conducted a meeting at Orfordville, in the school taught by Miss Clara Sunby.

Prin. F. J. Lowth gave a lecture last Saturday before 300 nuns at the Notre Dame Mother house, Milwaukee. The subject of his address was "Teaching Upper Grade Reading."

Plans are being made for the Halloween party which will be given at the training school Wednesday evening. The affair will be a costume party. The committee is composed of the Misses Hattie Hoag, Loreta Wickman, Lillian Anderson and Alice Kelly.

Dr. Carter Alexander, assistant state school superintendent, was a visitor at the training school, Thursday.

From the "Pulse" school in South Carolina, which Principal Lowth had in this month's issue of the Normal Instructor, entitled "Assignment of the Reading Lesson in the Upper Grades."

Miss Marie Dobson has an article in the Wisconsin Journal of Education on "Observing Thanksgiving in the Country School." She will write a similar article on the Christmas Exercises.

There will be a social at the school taught by Miss Agnes McIntyre, joint district 2, Porter, Halloween night. Principal Lowth will give an illustrated lecture.

"Teachers of the training school will attend the state teachers' meeting at Milwaukee, Nov. 8, 7 and 8. The school will be closed Thursday, Friday, Nov. 6 and 7.

The October number of the Rock County Educational Bulletin was sent to the rural teachers today.

Two box socials are being planned by rural teachers in celebration of Halloween. Miss Claire Helgen, teacher of the Avon Center school district No. 2, will give an entertainment Friday evening consisting of a program by the children and an address on "Consolidation" by a member of the state department of education.

In the town of Beloit, district 8, a box social and program will be given on the same night. Miss Nellie Olson is the teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Babcock, Beloit, have welcomed a daughter, Marion Elizabeth, to their home. Mrs. Babcock was formerly Miss Frances McCabe, a teacher in the town of La Prairie.

Miss Belle Marshall of this city took the teachers' examinations at the court house Friday.

"Hallowe'en Frights"—Weird, spooky and fantastic—Razpook's on So. Main St.

WOMAN DEFENDANT IN ASSAULT CASE

An assault and battery case of unusual type is listed to be heard by Judge H. L. Maxwell in municipal court at 10 o'clock this morning. The woman is the plaintiff while the man is the defendant, an exceptional occurrence in court circles.

The case was brought by Otto Mink against Mrs. William Wells, town of Bradford, for alleged brutal treatment. Mrs. Wells when charged in municipal court yesterday entered a plea of not guilty to the charge through her attorney, O. A. Oestreich, and asked for a hearing which was set for Nov. 7. Thomas S. Nolan represents the plaintiff.

Come to the supper tonight, 5-8, at Carroll Methodist Church.

STUDENTS TO WRITE IN NAVY ESSAY CONTEST

High schools in the state are asked by the navy recruiting station at 222 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, to enter into the essay contest which will run from Nov. 1 to 15 inclusive; each school entered to submit two essays; each essay to have at the top of paper, name of writer, high school, and date; essays must arrive at the U. S. recruiting station, 222 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, not later than noon Nov. 17.

Great care has been taken in selecting our weekly specials. We have tried a great many combinations, but this week's special is by far the best we ever made.

Carmel and Peanut Brittle can be had at all dealers.

SHURTLEFF CO.

WANTED—Room in private family. Can furnish best of references. Address 89 case Gazette.

NOTICE

On Oct. 20, 1919, the board of directors of the Mut. Town Ins. Co., of Lima and Johnston voted an assessment on all policies, to pay losses, the same to be paid to either of the directors, to the Bank of Milton or at the Commercial Bank in Milwaukee, on or before December 15, 1919.

Date Lima Center, Wis., Oct. 24, 1919.

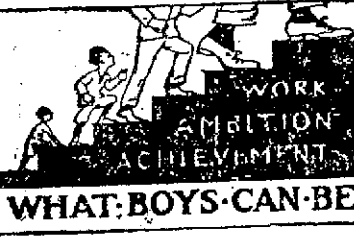

ORRA D. GOULD, Sec'y.

Great care has been taken in selecting our weekly specials. We have tried a great many combinations, but this week's special is by far the best we ever made.

Carmel and Peanut Brittle can be had at all dealers.

SHURTLEFF CO.

Come to the supper tonight, 5-8, at Carroll Methodist Church.

WHAT BOYS CAN BE

Mining Engineer

Buck Evans worked for the Bermuda Mining company. His father was a foreman in the mine and Buck worked in his gang.

"The best thing for you," advised his father, "is to go to a good technical school and train for a Mining Engineer."

Plans are being made for the Halloween party which will be given at the training school Wednesday evening. The affair will be a costume party. The committee is composed of the Misses Hattie Hoag, Loreta Wickman, Lillian Anderson and Alice Kelly.

Dr. Carter Alexander, assistant state school superintendent, was a visitor at the training school, Thursday.

From the "Pulse" school in South Carolina, which Principal Lowth had in this month's issue of the Normal Instructor, entitled "Assignment of the Reading Lesson in the Upper Grades."

Miss Marie Dobson has an article in the Wisconsin Journal of Education on "Observing Thanksgiving in the Country School." She will write a similar article on the Christmas Exercises.

There will be a social at the school taught by Miss Agnes McIntyre, joint district 2, Porter, Halloween night. Principal Lowth will give an illustrated lecture.

"Teachers of the training school will attend the state teachers' meeting at Milwaukee, Nov. 8, 7 and 8. The school will be closed Thursday, Friday, Nov. 6 and 7.

The October number of the Rock County Educational Bulletin was sent to the rural teachers today.

Two box socials are being planned by rural teachers in celebration of Halloween. Miss Claire Helgen, teacher of the Avon Center school district No. 2, will give an entertainment Friday evening consisting of a program by the children and an address on "Consolidation" by a member of the state department of education.

In the town of Beloit, district 8, a box social and program will be given on the same night. Miss Nellie Olson is the teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Babcock, Beloit, have welcomed a daughter, Marion Elizabeth, to their home. Mrs. Babcock was formerly Miss Frances McCabe, a teacher in the town of La Prairie.

Miss Belle Marshall of this city took the teachers' examinations at the court house Friday.

"Hallowe'en Frights"—Weird, spooky and fantastic—Razpook's on So. Main St.

WOMAN DEFENDANT IN ASSAULT CASE

An assault and battery case of unusual type is listed to be heard by Judge H. L. Maxwell in municipal court at 10 o'clock this morning. The woman is the plaintiff while the man is the defendant, an exceptional occurrence in court circles.

The case was brought by Otto Mink against Mrs. William Wells, town of Bradford, for alleged brutal treatment. Mrs. Wells when charged in municipal court yesterday entered a plea of not guilty to the charge through her attorney, O. A. Oestreich, and asked for a hearing which was set for Nov. 7. Thomas S. Nolan represents the plaintiff.

Come to the supper tonight, 5-8, at Carroll Methodist Church.

STUDENTS TO WRITE IN NAVY ESSAY CONTEST

High schools in the state are asked by the navy recruiting station at 222 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, to enter into the essay contest which will run from Nov. 1 to 15 inclusive; each school entered to submit two essays; each essay to have at the top of paper, name of writer, high school, and date; essays must arrive at the U. S. recruiting station, 222 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, not later than noon Nov. 17.

Great care has been taken in selecting our weekly specials. We have tried a great many combinations, but this week's special is by far the best we ever made.

Carmel and Peanut Brittle can be had at all dealers.

SHURTLEFF CO.

WANTED—Room in private family. Can furnish best of references. Address 89 case Gazette.

NOTICE

On Oct. 20, 1919, the board of directors of the Mut. Town Ins. Co., of Lima and Johnston voted an assessment on all policies, to pay losses, the same to be paid to either of the directors, to the Bank of Milton or at the Commercial Bank in Milwaukee, on or before December 15, 1919.

Date Lima Center, Wis., Oct. 24, 1919.

ORRA D. GOULD, Sec'y.

Great care has been taken in selecting our weekly specials. We have tried a great many combinations, but this week's special is by far the best we ever made.

Carmel and Peanut Brittle can be had at all dealers.

SHURTLEFF CO.

Come to the supper tonight, 5-8, at Carroll Methodist Church.

In the Churches

St. Patrick's Church, Catholic

First mass, 6:15 a. m.; second mass, 7:30 a. m.; third mass, 8:00 a. m.; fourth mass, 10:30 a. m.; Vespers, 7:30 p. m.; Dean E. E. Reilly, assistant pastor.

St. Mary's Church

First mass, 7:30 a. m.; second mass, 8:00 a. m.; third mass, Rev. Charles M. Olson, pastor; Rev. Joseph C. Neumann, assistant pastor.

Trinity Episcopal Church

Trinity Episcopal Church—Corner Jackson and West Bluff streets. Rev. Henry Williamson, rector. Nineteen Sunday school. Trinity Church school, 7:30 a. m.

Morning prayer, 10 a. m. and 10:30 a. m.

Tuesday, St. Simon and Jude's Day. Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m. and 10 a. m.

Saturday, All Saints' Day. Holy Communion, 7:30 and 10 a. m.

First Christian Church

First Christian church—Corner Milwaukee and Academy streets. H. T. Brown, pastor. Residence, 313 North High street.

Bible school, 10 a. m. Judd L. Cowan, superintendent.

German service, 11 a. m. The pastor will give a report of the international convention at the morning service.

Christianity and the Health of the Body, 7:30 p. m. Subject: "A Prepared Place." Home welcome to all who have not a church home.

St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church

St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church—Corner of Jackson and Dodge streets. G. J. Muller, pastor, 215 Center street.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. All services in English.

Evening service, 7:30 p. m. Young People's society will hold a Halloween social.

Christian Science Church

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Church edifice, 323 Pleasant street.

Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Lesson—sermon, 10:30 a. m. Wednesday at 7:45 p. m. Subject of lesson—sermon, "Prophets of the Bible."

Reading room, 503 Jackson block, open daily except Sundays and holidays, 10 a. m. to 12 p. m. and from 7 to 9 Saturday evenings.

First Baptist Church

First Baptist church—Corner Jackson and Pleasant streets. R. G. Pier, pastor. Residence, 402 North High street.

If you are a stranger or without a church home in the city we invite you to worship with us.

9:45 Bible school. J. C. Manchett, superintendent.

Wednesday evening worship. Subject: "The Spirit of Revival." 7:30 p. m. Evening service. Subject: "The Supreme Enigma."

Monday, 7:30 Young people's night. Tuesday, 7:30, King's Daughters' social.

Wednesday, Ladies' Aid society, 7:30 p. m. Troop No. 2, 7:30 p. m. Bible study and prayer service.

Thursday, 7:30 p. m. Mid-week Bible study and prayer service. Supper and meeting of Sunday school workers, 8:00 a. m. Social for pastor's Bible class. All young married folks invited.

United Brethren Church

United Brethren church—Corner Milton and Prospect avenues. J. Hart Truesdale, pastor.

Sunday services: 10, Sunday school. W. H. Douglas, superintendent.

11, Morning worship. First service of "Four Stewardship Sundays." Sermon subject, "Stewardship of Life." The Plentiful Harvest, but a Shortage of Laborers. All members are urged to attend these special services. Friends and visitors are welcomed.

3, Junior service. Always a helpful service.

5, Senior C. E. Gladys Kramer, leader.

7:30 p. m. Evening praise and preaching service. Subject: "Hearing and Heeding God's Call."

Monday evening, 7:30. Monthly official board meeting. All members expected out.

Wednesday evening, Teacher training and Bible study class.

Thursday evening, 7:30. Mid-week prayer service.

Friday evening, A Halloween social in church parlors, given by C. E. society. A good time for old and young.

St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church

St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church—Corner North Bluff street and Peace court. S. W. Ruch, pastor. Parsonage, 215 Center street.

First service at 9:30 a. m. in English.

Second service at 10:45 a. m. in German.

Sunday school at 10:45 a. m. in English.

All services begin according to winter time.

Bible school every Saturday at 9 a. m.

November 2nd is day of Reformation with celebration of holy communion. You are invited and welcome.

munium. You are invited and welcome.

First Lutheran church—Corner West Bluff and Madison streets. C. Thomsen, pastor.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Service in English every Sunday morning. J. J. Kelly and John Pederson will speak Sunday morning.

Evening service, 7:

NEWS ABOUT FOLKS

CLUBS SOCIETY
PERSONALS

SOCIAL EVENTS

The marriage of Agnes Marie Steinko and Paul O. Siebert took place Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Steinko, town of Milton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. P. Puch, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, under an arch of pink and white flowers.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Adella Steinko, and Miss Brian Gunkel. The groomsmen were George Treloff and Edward Steinko. A three course wedding supper was served after the ceremony by seven girl friends. Dancing was enjoyed in the evening.

The bride's gown was white, gored, with a train, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Steinko wore pink georgette and Miss Gunkel wore pink satin. They carried bouquets of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Siebert received many gifts.

About 100 relatives and friends attended. After a wedding journey in the east, Mr. and Mrs. Siebert will be at home to their friends in this city.

David Foster, Beloit, entertained a dinner party, evening at the Beloit Country club. It was their harvest home dinner and dance. Those from this city who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Siebert, Mr. and Mrs. Puch, Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Dorothy Korst and Frank Blodgett, Jr.

The Pansy Sunshine club met Friday at the home of Mrs. George Warren, 419 North Pearl street. The meeting was held to celebrate the birthday of the club members. Mrs. George Warren and Miss Lucy Granger. They were both presented with several gifts. The club was served at 5:30. This was a special reunion. The club has not met for over a year, but now hopes to continue the meetings during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Blackman, 81 Harrison street, gave a dinner party Friday evening. Fourteen guests were entertained. After dinner bridge was played. The prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Siebert, Mr. and Mrs. Puch, Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Dorothy Korst and Frank Blodgett, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hatch, 139 Jefferson avenue, entertained a dinner party Sunday. Their guests will be Prof. Quello Severance, Mrs. Alice Wells, Harry Wells, Milwaukee, Mrs. Julia Williams and son, Waukegan, Ill., and Prof. and Mrs. William Blinn, Rockford.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wyatt, entertained at a small dinner Friday evening at their home at 430 East street. Mrs. George Hatch, 436 North Pearl street, will entertain at a tea at 5:30 Monday.

Mrs. Otto Lucas, South Main street, has given out invitations for Monday, Nov. 3.

The King's Daughters will hold a reception for new members at the Baptist church at 7:30 Tuesday evening. A program has been arranged. A report of the state convention will be given and a social hour enjoyed.

The last club supper of the season of the Janesville Country club will be given at 6:30 next Tuesday evening under the direction of Mrs. Frank Van Kirk. The entertainment committee is planning some surprise stunts immediately after supper, to be followed by dancing. Extra music has been engaged for the evening. It is expected that the usually large crowd will be present for the annual closing event.

The Beta Gamma young women have graciously allowed their hall-lower decorations from tonight's dance to remain for the Tuesday club supper. All who wish to order supper for that evening are advised to make their reservations Monday.

The T. M. T. club which is composed of young girls, gave a party at the Bessie West evening, after which refreshments were served at a downtown cafe.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

The Twentieth Century class will meet at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at Library hall. Prof. Hodges Beloit college, will be the speaker.

Mrs. Harry E. Thomas, Sheboygan, state president of the King's Daughters, will address the members of the King's Daughters at the Baptist church Tuesday evening.

PERSONALS

Dr. Fred R. Littleman, who has been attending the American Congress of Surgeons in New York city, returns tomorrow.

Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Looboro, Mrs. R. R. Powell, Mrs. George Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Atwood, and Miss Abbie Atwood, motored to Delavan Friday evening to attend a Christian Science lecture.

Prof. and Mrs. William Blinn, Rockford, Ill., will be guests over Sunday at the George Hatch home, 120 Jefferson avenue.

Several members of Oak Grove lodge, No. 2, Beloit, attended a meeting held in this city Friday evening. Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. F. E. Sadler, and Mrs. M. G. Fankhauser, attended the state board meeting of the Woman's Christian board of Missions at the First Christian church in that city.

Miss Gwendolyn Jacobs, 321 South Second street, will come home from Lawrence college, Appleton, to spend the week-end.

Mrs. T. S. Stinson and daughter, Inda, 203 East street, returned today from a visit with Milwaukee relatives.

Mrs. Mary Doty, St. Lawrence avenue, went to Chicago today for a few days visit.

Miss Anna Frederick, Sharon, is at Mercy hospital where she is taking treatment.

Miss Julia Long, Darlen, was a shopper in this city Thursday.

Several friends from Turle came to this city and brought a picnic lunch Friday. They were guests of Mrs. and Mrs. G. W. Wick and Mr. and Mrs. Lutzko, who have recently moved here from Turle.

Leslie Dodge will spend the week-end at his home in Avon, Ind. Mrs. Peter Sicilian, Walworth, was a Thursday shopper in Janesville.

Mrs. E. L. Cutts, Cutts corners, was the guest of relatives in Janesville Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stevens, Chicago, will be the week-end guests of

ON THE ROAD TO SANDYSINKS

BY DELL MILITMORE

It wasn't very long ago since I've been known to say I had no use for autos—wouldn't they own anyway. For I was used to horses and I sort of loved them, too. An' thought for locomotion there was nothin' else would do. When auto folks had trouble in their smashin' laws o' speed, I'd always thought 'twas jest because th' drivers gave no heed.

But since a car was wished on me by Ben Rolfe's good friend Bill I found the chauffeur's path in life is some of it up hill. An' instance, if you're comin' to a narrow stretch o' road An' right ahead's some country team with jest a measly load Of empty milk cans or a calf or garden truck—It's rich! If you should want to pass they'd like to make you take th' ditch!

Ben taught me how to run it an' you should have seen him laugh! Th' first time I was drivin' it, we met a whole calf— Ben said I holloed, "Whoa!" an' his laughin' somehow queered Th' finest bit o' drivin' that I'd done upon th' trip! But 'twasn't long before I felt that I could run th' ship.

An' Joe, my son, was tickled when I told him my good news An' said that nothin' would prevent his movin' for th' dues. Th' day he join th' Golf club where they'd taught me how to play Th' road was straight an' Joe's o' room but I got sort o' skeered— Ben said I holloed, "Whoa!" an' his laughin' somehow queered Th' finest bit o' drivin' that I'd done upon th' trip! But 'twasn't long before I felt that I could run th' ship.

For when they's any doin's at th' Golf club up in town They always keep me posted. Then our city friends come down An' stay a couple days or so, I play out here with me. An' Ma, she sure enjoys th' car. It does me good to see That she is lighter-hearted than she's been for many years— It's fun to hear her talkin' of the housin' an' th' gears.

So if you'd heed th' wise men an' forget your life of zeal Abandon horses—buy a car—An' see how young you'll feel. Thus far I've had no trouble with th' workin' of my car. Expense not 'incidental' as my pleasure trip to mar. It cures th' weary brain-fag—smooths th' disposition's kinks It scents th' rosy fragrance of th' road to Sandysinks.

We've read of Ponce de Leon who sought eternal youth But gettin' down to facts, I'll say—an' this is gospel truth— Old Ponce's dreams of youth an' health an' fervid joy of life Can't e'en compare for inspirin' with hours all free from strife, A-skimmin' through th' summer air with sunshine through th' trees— Believe me! Ponce's brightest dreams were ne'er as fair as these.

ART LEAGUE STUDIES
LIFE OF ILLUSTRATORS

Mrs. H. H. Faust was the leader of the program presented yesterday at the meeting of the Art League in the library hall. "American Illustrators" is the topic of study of the league for the year. Mrs. Faust spoke on Thomas Nast. He began his work in the drafting department of Leslie's Weekly, and he made cartoons and illustrations for other publications. He originated the idea of the elephant and the donkey to represent the different political parties. She also described the work of Thomas Moran who was not only a painter of the Grand Canyon, but also painted other scenic pictures.

Mrs. Alice Wells and Harry Wells, Milwaukee, are in the city to attend the State Dancing Master's association meeting to be held at the Hatch studio tomorrow.

Dr. Ben Warren, Detroit, Mich., spent a few hours in Janesville at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. H. Warren, Cornelia street, today. He left this afternoon for New Orleans, La., to attend a meeting of the American Public Health association.

LOST—Bullet shape fountain pen, named engraved, Minnette Knopp. Finder please return to Gazette and receive reward.

enden, who is most noted for his picture shows at the world's fair, "Breaking Home Ties." She also mentioned Herbert Herkimer who was noted for his lectures on art topics as well as for his etchings, portraits, and engravings. The league will hold a social in two weeks at the home of Fred Sheldon, with Mrs. Hannah Fletcher, who is a member of the league.

ENDEAVORS HOLD
DISTRICT MEETING

The Southern District Christian Endeavor Convention is in session at the Baptist church in Beloit today and tomorrow. Delegations from Janesville, Delavan, Darien, Emerald Grove, Clinton, Brodhead and Elmore are in attendance. Miss Nellie M. Saunders, Beloit, acting president of the district, has charge of the convention. Edgar T. Charlil, Milwaukee, state director of Christian Endeavor work, will be the principal speaker on the program this evening. The Misses Ellen Fisher, Thelma Schrader, Bertha Claxton, will represent the local United Brethren church.

SPECIAL NOTICE
Carter's Underwear Week, Oct. 25 to November 1. South room.
J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.
Don't forget to order our Ballowen Ice Cream Special.
SHURTLEFF COMPANY.

50 FARMERS FORM
COW TESTERS' ASS'N

More than 50 farmers living in the vicinity of Edgerton and Indian Ford attended the meeting of the Cow Testers' association at the hall in Indian Ford Thursday evening.

A board of directors including Willis Schoenfeld, H. A. Harried, John Muschel and Neal Mason were appointed by the association. The board elected executive officers. Neal Mason was elected president, H. A. Harried, vice-president, and John Schoenfeld secretary and treasurer. A short talk was given by A. J. Cramer of the Wisconsin Livestock and Breeders association. In his talk he outlined a complete analysis of conditions existing in the herd. At the completion of his examination he will make a report to the farmer showing conditions and making suggestions for improvement.

It is understood that a man well qualified for the position has been secured and his arrival is expected next week.

DEMENTED WOMAN IS FOUND AT MILTON JCT.

Fear that Maggie Knight, demented woman who escaped from the county asylum Thursday night, has fallen into Rock river and had been drowned, was abandoned today when she was found near Milton Junction possibly making her way along a lonely country road. She was taken back to the institution at 10 o'clock this morning by Supt. Archibald Cullen.

She appeared to be none the worse for her day's absence from the institution and her 8 mile journey. It is presumed that she slept in a barn along the road last night although nothing much could be learned from her as to her escapade.

Clinton Man In Pulpit at First Lutheran Tomorrow

Rev. John Peterson, Jefferson Prairie church, Clinton, will occupy the pulpit of the First Lutheran church Sunday morning. He will speak on "Christian Education." The Reverend Peterson will direct the "Tri-Academy" campaign for $10,000 in the Milwaukee circuit. N. C. A. Garness, Whitewater, who has been placed in full charge of the drive, says all is now in readiness, waiting for the opening.

Phone in your order now for our Halloween Ice Cream Special.
SHURTLEFF COMPANY.

TWO PERFECTLY GOOD
KEGS OF BEER STOLEN

There is at least one man in Janesville who is not worried whether the sale of beer stops today or in January.

Two full kegs of the fluid were stolen from the rear of the John Flannery saloon on West Milwaukee street shortly after six o'clock this morning according to a report made to the police station. The beer was on driver said he left six kegs of the best 2.75 percent beverage in the rear of the saloon and when he came back a short time later only four kegs were left.

SPECIAL OFFER

on the small type, genuine,

Victrola

This Victor Victrola and (10) selections on 10-inch double back Black Seal records—all for only—

Twenty Nine-Twenty Five

You select any record you want from the Victor catalog and pay us only $7.50 down and $5.00 per month until paid for.

We will be glad to demonstrate this Victrola in your home.

C. W. Diehls

Victrola Headquarters
26 W. Milwaukee St.

CARTERS UNDERWEAR WEEK, OCT. 25th to NOV. 1st

Knit
Underwear
South
Room

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.
JANESVILLE - WISCONSIN

Knit
Underwear
South
Room

This is Underwear Headquarters

The cool days for Fall are here and the cold winter days are not far away, so now is the time to replenish your supply of Fall and Winter Knit Underwear.

We are well equipped to furnish you with your needs, despite the acute market shortage of all kinds of knit underwear. Our prices give you the best values obtainable hereabout, because we bought before wholesale prices advanced to their present day height.

Our stock consists of the following makes of Knit Underwear.

Carter's, Athena and Munsing

See Window Display

Carter's Underwear

Women's Union Suits, high neck, long sleeves, ankle length, also half low neck, elbow sleeves, ankle length, at... $2.00
Women's Same Quality As Above in Extra Sizes, low neck, no sleeves, ankle length, at... $2.25
Women's Cotton and Wool Union Suits at... $3.50 AND $3.75

Women's Union Suits, silk and wool, elbow sleeve, ankle length, also low neck, no sleeves, at... $3.50
Women's All Wool and Silk and Wool Union Suits, high neck, long sleeves, ankle length; also half low neck, ankle length and low neck, no sleeves, at... $4.75 AND $5.00

Athena Underwear

Women's Cotton Fleece Union Suits, medium weight, all styles, at... $2.00, $2.25 AND $2.50
Women's Wool and Cotton Union Suits, elbow and no sleeves, at... $2.00, $2.25 AND $2.50

Women's All Wool Union Suits, in white, at... $5.00
Women's Fleece Lined Vests and Pants, in white and cream, at... $1 AND $1.25
Women's Natural Grey Wool Vests and Pants, at... $2.25

Munsing Underwear

Women's Fleece Union Suits, all styles in medium weight, at... $2.00
Women's Union Suits, light weight, low neck, sleeveless, at... $1.25
Women's Union Suits, wool and cotton mixtures, in natural grey and white, at... $2.75, $3.75 TO $4.00

We carry a complete line of Children's and Infants' Vests, Bands, Shirts, Drawers and Union Suits.

FURNITURE FOR THE OLD AND NEW HOMES of JANESVILLE

Look Over Our Stock and Judge for Yourself

Frank D. Kimball
FURNITURE AND UNDERTAKING

The Janesville Gazette

New Buildings, 202-204 East Milwaukee St.
Entered at the Postoffice at Janesville, Wis., as Second Class Mail Matter.

Full Licensed Wire News Report by the Associated Press.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
By carrier in Janesville 15c week; $7.50 per year.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also local news published herein.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1919.

The Gazette Stands Ready to Support all Endeavor to Make Janesville and Vicinity a Bigger and Better Community.

MIGHTY RIVER FLOWS THROUGH OCEAN.

Recent reports of seamen concerning the present excessive temperature of the waters of the Gulf Stream, to which some experts attribute the heat wave along the Atlantic coast, prompted the National Geographic society to issue a bulletin concerning this mighty current.

The bulletin, based on a communication from Rear Admiral John E. Pillsbury, U. S. N., president of the National Geographic society and the world's foremost authority on the Gulf Stream, follows:

"The Gulf Stream is probably the grandest and most mighty of any terrestrial phenomenon. Its waters are characterized by a deep indigo blue color of great clearness and high temperature. It can be penetrated by the eye to considerable depths, and generally its meeting with the less saline polar waters can be at once distinguished.

"It is difficult for the mind to grasp the immensity of this great ocean river. The Straits of Florida at its narrowest point is about 40 miles wide. A calculation of the average volume of water passing in one hour gives the enormous sum of 90 billion tons. If this one single hour's flow of water could be evaporated the remaining salt would require many times more than all the ships in the world to carry it.

"When one is on board a vessel, floating upon its waters, one is not as much impressed at the power and grandeur of this wonder of nature as he is when he stands before a towering mountain, an immense iceberg, or a fall of water such as Niagara, but when one remembers that the mighty torrent, speeding on hour by hour and day by day in a volume equal to all the largest rivers in the world combined, carrying its beneficent heat to temper the climate of continents, one begins to realize that of all the forces of the physical world none can equal this one river of the ocean.

"Ponce de Leon, while on his famous search for the Fountain of Youth, made the discovery of this great stream. After his failure to find, on the coast of upper Florida, the means of cheating death, he turned to the southward and skirted the shore for hundreds of miles, thus stemming the current.

"The name of 'Gulf Stream' was first suggested by Benjamin Franklin because it issues from the Gulf of Mexico. While it is only a part of the grand scheme of ocean circulation, and the Gulf of Mexico is in reality only a stopping place, as it were, for its waters, this name is generally applied to the current flow as it was given by Franklin—that is, the current coming from the Gulf of Mexico and spreading abroad over the North Atlantic.

"The theories as to the cause of ocean currents have been many.

"Franklin's theory, which has many advocates at the present day, was that the winds produce the current by the air moving over the surface of the water, and he illustrated this theory by the following: 'It is known that a large piece of water, 10 miles broad and generally only 3 feet deep, has by a strong wind had its water driven to one side and sustained so as to become 6 feet deep, while the windward side was laid dry.' As will be seen later, this is a well-taken example of the force of the wind in causing the Gulf Stream, but it does not quite show the whole of the truth.

"In the tropical regions there is a steady movement of the air from east to west known as the trade winds. South of a certain line situated near the equator these winds flow from a southwesterly direction, while north of the equator they come from a more northeasterly direction. The winds are not always strong, nor are they constant in direction, but they do not vary much, and then only for brief periods.

"Winds blowing over the surface of the water induce a current in the latter due to friction. At first it is only the merest skim that moves, but gradually the motion is communicated from layer to layer until at last, if the wind is long continued as in the trade wind region, the movement extends to lower depths, 300 or 400 feet, or perhaps more.

"These trade wind currents meet finally, the partial barrier of the islands forming the eastern part of the Caribbean, and a portion of the flow escapes through the passages between them. From here it continues its course across that sea until it reaches the obstruction of the Honduras and Yucatan coasts, from which it escapes by the easiest route, which is into the Gulf of Mexico.

"It has been found, however, that the water entering the Caribbean by this means is not more than one-half of the amount which flows through the Straits of Florida from the Gulf of Mexico, and the other half is supplied from a source which does not come under the head of a measurable current. The other source is the wave caused by the wind. Every ripple carries a certain amount of water in the direction toward which it is flowing, irrespective of the current caused by its friction, and when the waves become large, tons of water are hurled from the crest into the trough every time the wave breaks.

"In a large area like the Caribbean, having a comparatively constant wind blowing over its whole surface, this action is practically a simultaneous movement of its surface waters to the westward and a continual escape of the water heaped up at the obstruction offered by the land into the Gulf of Mexico, through the Straits of Florida, and into the Atlantic.

"The Gulf Stream would be little felt on the coast of Europe did it not receive a great addition to its volume of heat when on route. This is by means of a gentle flow from the northeast trade wind current that passes outside the Caribbean Islands and the Bahamas. The surface temperature of this outside current is about the same in its passage along the West Indian Islands as the Gulf Stream in the Straits of Florida, but it is less violent in its movements and there is less intermingling of its upper and lower waters, so that it arrives off Cape Hatteras with a much higher temperature than that of the more turbulent Gulf Stream."

EXTREMISTS, AS USUAL, TO BLAME.

The break-up of the industrial conference at Washington must be looked upon with something of the regret and apprehension with which we viewed the failure of the efforts of the well-disposed to ward off world disaster in July, 1914.

The employers, to a word, refuse to bargain collectively with workers organized as they wish to organize, and represented in negotiations by men of their own choosing. They held that agreement on their part would mean giving in to the closed shop, and representation of men by business agents or labor union off-

JUST FOLKS

Edgar A. Guest

THE LONE TREE
All summer long it stood out there—
A scraggly tree, ill-shaped and poor.
The field that mothered it seemed bare
As any wind-worn Scottish moor.
I saw it first one sunny day
As I was passing in a train
And something in me seemed to say:
"There stands a tree which grows in vain."

Behind it were the distant hills
On which were ranged majestic trees.
"Surely," thought I, "this weaking fills
No place in nature's harmonies.
This is an outcast from its clan,
Deserted by its fellow-kind,
Of little use to God or man."
And then I dropped it out of mind.

Then came a day in autumn, when
The woods with gold seemed all ablaze.
I passed along that way again
And turned upon the scene to gaze.
There stood the outcast, garbed in red,
Blending its scarlet with the green
And brown and purple, richly spread—
No longer poor and gaunt and mean!

It seemed as if some Master Hand
Had rightly placed that lonely tree
Upon that stretch of barren land
Exactly where it ought to be.
The landscape with its splendors, rare,
An incomplete work had been Without that striding standing there
To splash its scarlet on the scene.

Who knows, when life's great tasks are done,
But what the outcasts, mean and base,
Shall, in the scenes we look upon,
Yet spending their days on barren land
Perhaps as lonely trees they stand,
Seemingly lost to God and man,
Yet spending their days on barren land
To serve the beauty of His Plan.
Copyright 1919 by Edgar A. Guest.

claims not employed in the plant or works affected.
President Wilson's plea for continued efforts to reach some basis of agreement was as fruitless as Sir Edward Grey's appeal to the Central Powers in 1914 to submit the Austrian-Serbian tangle to discussion and conciliation.

What large employers want, evidently, is a condition like that prevailing in the steel plants, namely, the open shop. They would encourage men to stay out of unions, and in wage discussions, they would prefer meeting mixed committees, made up of both union and non-union men. They would daily refuse to discuss labor matters with men not in their employ. In large establishments, with high wage rates, unions would have little chance to become a determining force under such a regime.

What labor desires is an opportunity, with public sanction, to build up rock-ribbed organizations everywhere, that could put solid fronts to all employers in all discussions of wages, hours, and working conditions.

It is reasonably safe to say that the public generally favors sane and honest unionism, and recognizes the need for workers to stand together to obtain good living conditions. The ancient idea that labor should be paid the lowest wage on which life could be maintained, is now regarded as shameful. Modern unionism simply represents a great organized effort to get away from the old system.

In the present conflict, there are extreme men on both sides; employers who would crush unions altogether, and workers who would abolish our present industrial system and substitute that communism which is causing Russia to bloom like a stag plant.

Between the two extremes are the great mass of well-disposed men who believe in co-operation, mutual fair treatment, good pay, and an honest day's work cheerfully rendered and likewise appreciated.

The extremists may put us all to a great deal of trouble in the coming months. The many may suffer for the intolerance of the few. In the end, we shall settle upon some middle course of fair dealing.

Their Opinions

Those policemen with stop watches for the purpose of timing violators of the speed laws ought to do a lot of good if the speeders will slow down enough so their numbers can be seen through the mud applied with such careless finesse.—Madison Democrat.

Everybody is now reported to have struck except the doctors, and it is expected that they will soon refuse to visit the sick except between the hours of 9 a. m. and 3 p. m.—Marquette Eagle-Star.

Government intervention, according to Gary, should be limited to maintaining peace and order. And the status quo ante bellum, judge?—LeCrosse Tribune.

If the Mexican government doesn't shoot all the bandits down there, we propose shutting off its supply of ammunition. And after that we shall require it to make bricks without straw.—Shelbygan Press.

Backward Glances

FORTY YEARS AGO

Oct. 25, 1879.—Mrs. N. Dearborn and Mrs. O. J. Dearborn have returned from the east, where they have been spending the summer.—Rev. H. Sewell preaches tomorrow at the Free Will church at Johnson town. Prof. Jackson will occupy Mr. Sewell's pulpit here.—Congressman Williams returned today from a campaign speech-making tour of the state.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Oct. 25, 1889.—Mrs. M. E. Woodstock has returned from Chicago, where she was called by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. John Shelton.—Deputy Game Warden A. A. Bingham, Koshkonong, was in the city on business today.—Mrs. Garrett Voeder and daughter, Lillian, left today for a few days' visit in Plattville.—Thomas Mount is in Edgerton on business.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Oct. 25, 1899.—S. W. Standaard, who has been the guest of C. E. Brown for the past week, has left for Milwaukee. After a few days in that city, he will go to Janesville, where he will make his home.—Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shiley, 203 Central Ave., having returned from New York, are now at Kory-Kove, Koshkonong, where they are entertaining friends from Chicago, Janesville and Stevens Point.

TEN YEARS AGO

Oct. 25, 1909.—Walter Pfaff left today for Reno, Nev., where he now makes his home, after visiting friends and relatives in this city for a few weeks.—Mrs. Arthur Granger has returned from a visit with friends in this city.—Miss Mae Humphrey spent Sunday in Beloit.—John Slightam, of this city, has returned after a three weeks' visit in Madison.

Sketches From Life -- By Temple

Bells of Peace

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN, Director
Janesville Daily Gazette Information Bureau,
Washington, D. C.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—A bell tower three hundred feet high, which will ring sweet music from 50 miles, is the latest idea for a peace memorial to be erected in Washington.

This bell tower project is being pushed by the Arts club of Washington. One of its leading sponsors is William Gorman Rice, who has made a life study of bell music in general, and especially of carillons, as the great tower chimes are called. It is intended to raise five million dollars for building the tower, for making the bells, and for providing a bellmaster of the highest skill to play and teach this new kind of music in America. The promoters of the project, who are many and of high repute, say that there will be no trouble at all about the five million.

"What is five million dollars in 'America'?" said one of them. "We can raise it with ease. Of course, we could build and maintain a tower and carillon for a great deal less, but if America is going to have a bell tower at all, it must be the greatest bell tower in the world. This bell tower will be the highest in the world, it will have more bells than any other in the world, and it will be played by the greatest bellmaster in the world."

Music Is Sweetest
"It is said that the music of the carillon is the sweetest that can be played, and it is a music which carries for miles and miles. Hundreds of thousands can hear it at once and it cannot be confined, it is heard by all who are near it. It is the true music of democracy."

This carillon project is full of beautiful sentiments like that. The carillon originated and reached its finest development in Belgium and in Holland, so that this bell tower which is proposed to erect in Washington will be in some sort a tribute to Belgium and to Belgian heroism. Again, the bell tower, say those who know, is a symbol of democracy. The first ones were built in the thirteenth century when common men first dared to strike against the oppressions of their overlords. They were then merely the means of calling people together. Gradually the musical properties of bells were discovered and developed. First came the chime, then the carillon.

For a carillon, it should be understood, is a mammoth musical instrument upon which any sort of music may be played. It contains from 40 to 50 bells and each of these has several clappers or strikers, operated by power. The carillon is played like an organ from a room below the belfry, and has a keyboard like an organ or piano.

Dutch Towns Have Bells
In Belgium and Holland, nearly every town and city has its carillon, usually located in a tower near the center of the city and often in the market place. The bellmaster is a municipal officer, usually a musician of high attainments, and one of the most valued and respected of civil servants.

The bell towers usually play a few bars of music at the hour, the half-hour and the quarter hour. This is done by machinery and does not require an attendant. But at regular intervals, usually about once a week, a concert is held and the bellmaster renders a regular musical program. It is said that only at these hours people often gather to hear Josef Denyn, the famous Belgian master of the carillon at Mecklin, Belgium. He is the man whom the promoters of the carillon in Washington are now endeavoring to bring to America and place in charge of the bells of peace.

Some of these European bell towers are also famous. One, for example, rang in 1814 to celebrate the making of peace between the United States and Great Britain after the war of 1812, and it was planned to hold a centennial celebration of this event, there in 1914, but the world war interfered.

The use of the carillon spread from Belgium to Holland, France, and finally to England, where the carillon in recent years has become popular. The English bell foundries are now recognized as the best in the world, and it is with an English firm which has been making bells for several generations, that the promoters of the American project are now corresponding. The English firm estimate and received one which they rejected on the ground that it was too modest. The English bell makers are now at work preparing an estimate for a carillon greater than any now in existence. It will have 54 bells, which is said to be two more than any existing carillon contains. Its largest bell will weigh over 2,000 pounds and will probably be the greatest bell in existence, while the smallest will perhaps weigh not more than twenty pounds.

All Kinds of Music Played
It should not be imagined that the music of the carillon is a sort which it takes much education to appreciate. All kinds of tunes are played

ON THE SPUR of the MOMENT

ROY K. MOULTON

BRIDGE.
She lingered at bridge till midnight,
The clock was striking the hour,
Her husband stayed home with the children.
His face was a vision sour.
He was miffed at her late ambition
To gather the sordid pelf,
He'd a date at a poker party,
And wanted some dough himself.

This man Paderewski, all these years playing the piano, has just been preparing himself for the premiere, ship, unconscious of the fact that he ought to have enough strength in his fingers to make a typewriter scream for help. When the office seekers come around, 25 or 30 after one job, he can invite 'em into the front room and sit down at the old baby grand and just lull 'em to sleep with somebody's son-of-a-bitch serenade. After he gets through playing, all the Polish politicians will think they have had their jobs and lived through 'em and gone to heaven. When Paderewski goes before the Polish congress they won't expect him to make a speech. They will ask him to sing a Polish song. Admission into the galleries can be charged for at the rate of $5 a seat. That will be the only congress in the whole world where the president appears. If all the senators at Washington played the piano instead of making speeches I would believe the Senate would be a musical institution. It would be a great saving in printing the Congressional Record, too. It would take only a line or two to say: "Senator Blanks of Arkansas addressed the senate with 'The Will of a Lost Soul,' by Hitemupanoff, in F Minor. Instead of sending his speech around to his constituents, he could send phonograph records."

There was an old woman
Who wanted a fat
She had seven children,
So that settled that.
WHY, ENEMY, THIS VERY IDEA.
Emmy Destiny, the opera star, recently arrived in America, has a pet child which she is very fond of. The other day she called on the cat "Fat," said Mme. Destiny, with the air of introducing a queen, "ez my Macinka."

"She was a Bohemian lady," the singer continued, with a twinkle in her eye, "and she make a verree fine mozzart for ze centree. She has 45 babies. She es example for all ladies mozzart."

MORAL—RAVE OVER BIRDIE'S SAXOPHONE.
The third number on the program was a saxophone solo by Miss Birdie Puffer. Musicians are agreed that the saxophone is an instrument of which but few men can get any real music, but Miss Birdie played it beautifully. She is a popular member of our most exclusive musical society and she is also noted for having once whipped a gentleman who did not appreciate her saxophone playing.—Pleasant Valley (Ark.) Palladium.

EVER SEE A SILK BARTENDER?
Sleek in a downtown window:
SILK BARTENDERS' VESTS.
Apparently, the Boston police struck out.

The shortage of houses should be relieved now. Col. E. M. is back.

ASK US

The Gazette maintains an information bureau at Washington, D. C., under the direction of Frederic J. Haskin. Questions will be answered on any subject. Those desiring information should write letter to the Janesville Daily Gazette Information Bureau, Washington, D. C., and enclose a stamp. The letter will be answered by the bureau.

Q. Is there any odor that will drive mice away? A. R.

Q. The biological survey says that the smell of mice is disagreeable to mice and they will not frequent places where it is kept.

Q. How many Irishmen from Ireland fought the British army and navy in the late war? M. O. H.

A. There were 275,592 sons of Erin in the British land and sea forces, according to a statement issued by the Irish National Bureau of Washington.

Q. Did Wallace Reid have a part in that famous picture "The Birth of a Nation"? H. G.

A. Yes, he played the rather obscure role of the blacksmith in this production. At that time he was not a star.

Q. What was the reason for the scarcity of gold in circulation during the war? L. D.

A. During the war the treasury department took steps to discourage the use of gold as money. This was done to forestall the national tendency to hoard gold in time of trouble. The result was that there came to be very little gold in circulation.

Q. If I sell my farm will I have to pay income tax on the entire sum realized by reason of the sale? E. E.

A. No. You will only have to pay income tax on the profit made on the sale, based upon a fair market value of the property as of March 1, 1913, or on the price you paid if acquired since that time.

Q. What will remove the taste of new shingle wood from rain water, and also what will clear the water, as it has a dark color? C. E. C.

A. The bureau of public roads suggests that you add one or two grains of alum to a gallon of water, then filter through charcoal or charcoal sand. This will help to clarify it.

Q. Will you please tell me the size of the New York hippodrome stage? F. J. W.

A. The stage of the New York hippodrome is 210 feet by 110 feet, while the stage of the Cleveland hippodrome is 125 feet by 65 feet.

Q. What is the most precious stone in existence? W. C.

A. The geological survey says that a ruby is the most valuable of all precious stones.

City to Pay Teachers
Kenosha.—The city council appropriated $25,000 for the school board to meet obligations to teachers. Expenditures from the general fund for minor contracts on the new McKinley school have so reduced the school funds as to make it impossible to pay the teachers' salaries without aid from the city. Waiting for approval of a $500,000 bond issue is preventing the board from obtaining its regular income.

Aged Woman Dies
Manitowish.—Mrs. Mary Newcomb, 88, resident of this city for 110 years and one of the best known women in this vicinity, is dead, after an illness which confined her to bed for four months.

SUSPECT KILLED BY POSSE WAS NOT BANDIT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Beaver Falls, Pa., Oct. 25.—Officials of Beaver county announced here today that the man who was killed by an armed posse near Cooke Ferry, 18 miles from here late last night, was not one of the three bandits who yesterday robbed the State bank at Beaver Falls, murdered a director of the institution and escaped with more than $1,500 in currency. The dead man was known as Tom Martini. His companions gave their names as Walter Rocella and Pete Mareno, Italians of Youngstown, Ohio. They said that when members of the posse called on them to halt they did not understand and started to run, and the shooting followed. A message from Youngstown authorities states that three men had been arrested there as suspects.

Roy's Join Band
Eau Claire.—Sixty boys between 12 and 14 have signed up for the band and under the tutelage of Theodore Steinmetz, director of the Liberty band. More than half the number will play reed instruments.

NOTICE!!

We are going to put on the market on Monday, Oct. 27, 214 building lots in different sections of the city, ranging in price from $100 to $2500. We will sell these lots singly or in groups and if you have any idea of building within the next two years you should not fail to secure at least one of these lots.

Herbert J. Cunningham Agency
General Insurance and Real Estate
Sole Agents

Frank Douglas

Practical Hardware, S. River St.

It's Quicker—It's Better
It's Far More Economical

"MY kitchen is warm and cheery when I come to get breakfast. No fires to build—no time lost chopping kindling—no ice cold trips to the wood shed for fuel—just open the draft and in a jiffy breakfast is steaming on the table. Oven always ready for perfect baking—no stooping as oven is shoulder high. It responds instantly to the easily controlled fuel-saving drafts. You cut your fuel bills in half with—"

Cole's High Oven Range

(Patented)
It saves cost of extra heater
It heats—cooks—bakes with one fire

R. C. POSTERS APPEAR; WOMEN PRAISED FOR DRIVE ORGANIZATION

The Red Cross campaign for the third roll call for $1 membership, Nov. 2-11, made its formal debut in this city today with the distribution of window posters to all downtown business houses. The Boy Scouts were designated the official distributors.

The women's organization in this city for the roll call, was complimented by state workers as being the most efficient plan of organization in the state. This is the message Mrs. Herbert A. Ford, campaign manager, brings back to her 150 workers from the state meetings of campaign and publicity managers held in Milwaukee, Thursday. Mrs. Ford returned from Milwaukee last evening. She reports that 71 delegates from chapters were in attendance at the booster meeting. Home service was the keynote struck by the speakers, says Mrs. Ford. Dr. Thomas E. Green, director of the speakers' bureau, in Washington gave the principal address. Other speakers were E. K. Hardy, manager of central division, Chicago; Walter Davidson, director of volunteer work, Chicago; S. F. McFadden, Wisconsin state campaign manager; and Minnie H. Ahrens, director nursing bureau, Chicago.

Personal enlistment and service, not money is the primary aim of the Red Cross in the third annual roll call, according to Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman of the central committee. "The emergencies of war created demands which could be met only with great sums of money and these were furnished by the people with unexampled generosity," Dr. Farrand says. "The peace program to which the Red Cross has been called by hand calls for no such financial outlay but does involve continuous cooperative personnel service which shall reach into every corner of the country. "For this reason in the campaign set for Nov. 2 to 11, the Red Cross is stressing not money, but personal enlistment. What is necessary to accomplish the important tasks of peace is the member with his dollar, his heart and his service. The Red Cross proposes nothing less than the mobilization of the American people in a united, constructive effort to eliminate preventable disease and unnecessary misery from American life."

EVANSVILLE MAN'S AUTO STOLEN TODAY

Police were instructed by Chief Morrissey today to keep a sharp lookout for a car bearing the Wisconsin license number 58,846, belonging to Victor Peterson, a farmer living near Evansville. The car was stolen from the Peterson farm early today. Chief Gilman, Evansville, notified local police. It was taken by a middle-aged man who drove into the farm yard on a motorcycle which he had stolen from the car and started toward Janesville.

Big Increase in Use of "Potato Flour" in Bread

(BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.) Idaho Falls, Ida.—Numerous potato dehydrating plants are springing up throughout this state. Utah, as the result of the use of "potato flour" in the making of bread and many other articles of food. The potato flour is not used exclusively in the manufacture of bread, but is a mixture with wheat flour produces many more loaves in a given batch of dough than when wheat flour is the lone ingredient. The tons of small potatoes that were formerly rejected by buyers are now enjoying a good market at the dehydrating plants.

Reappointed

C. A. HOHN

C. A. Hoehn, postmaster at Edgerton, appointed on October 1, 1919, has been re-appointed to that position by President Wilson and the appointment has been confirmed by the United States Senate. During the administration of Mr. Hoehn several achievements of importance for Edgerton and vicinity have been accomplished. The removal of the post office to larger and more commodious quarters was an important factor step. He was instrumental in instituting the rural route service. One new rural route was established and other routes were lengthened so as to accommodate over 4,000 new passengers. Mr. Hoehn was the founder of what is known as "The Neighborhood Employment Exchange." It is a branch of the United States Employment Service. It was the first post office employment office in the United States and through it more than 500 laborers have secured work during the last three years.

During the war Mr. Hoehn was active in all campaigns launched in Edgerton and vicinity and as a result of his efforts more than 100 men for enlistments in the various branches of the United States military and naval service and the Wisconsin National Guard.

EVANSVILLE

(By Gazette Correspondent.) Evansville, Oct. 25.—Robert Richardson, London, Ontario, arrives here for a visit with relatives and friends. He will accompany home Mrs. Richardson and little son, who have been visiting here for the past several weeks.

An eight-pound baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bullard, Thursday.

Miss Alice and Charlotte Colony went to Beloit, Friday, to visit Miss Harriet Moran, and to attend the Christian Endeavor convention.

Miss Florence and her mother went to Madison last night for a week-end visit with her parents.

The Misses Harriet Green, Mary Baird, and Mrs. Mildred Hanson went to Beloit today to attend the Christian Endeavor convention.

George Kuhns and family will soon move into the house on Second street to be vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Franklin.

Mrs. John Leonard is ill. She has a nurse attending her.

Mrs. Elsie Bagley, Mrs. Charles Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Benedict, Beloit, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greutinger, Thursday.

Mrs. May Shreve has returned from a few weeks' visit with relatives in Hillsboro.

John Hansen and family visited relatives in Stoughton recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Benedict, Kankakee, Ill., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Greutinger.

Mrs. Walter Ritzow entertained about a dozen women recently in honor of Mrs. R. R. Edwards, Oak Park, Ill., who is visiting friends here.

J. H. Sheekels was a Janesville visitor yesterday.

Lyle Porter came down from Madison last night for an over Sunday visit with relatives.

Henry Amerolf is the new clerk in the Beloit meat market.

Baptist church: Morning worship, 10:30; Sunday school, 11:45; Junior society, 2; B. Y. P. U., 6:30; song service and sermon, 7:30. The morning sermon will be delivered by Reverend Smith. The evening service will be the first of a series of six illustrated sermons on the life of Christ, to be given in the next six Sunday evenings, in which from 40 to 50 slides will be used. You are invited to any or all of these services.

Christian Science church: Sunday service, 11:45 at Commercial club rooms. Wednesday evening service will be held for month of October at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Freuchen.

Free Methodist church: Sunday school, 10; preaching at 11; class meetings at 12; Young Peoples prayer and prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to any and all of these services.

Congregational church: We worship with the Baptist people Sunday morning and evening. There will be morning and evening service at 7:30. C. E. meeting owing to convention in Beloit. It is expected that we will be back in our own church the first Sunday in November.

Methodist Episcopal church: Sunday school at 10; preaching service at 11. "The Kingdom News." A special program. Epworth league at 8:30. Evening service 7:30. Subject, "The Pharisee and the Publican."

St. Paul's church: Mass and sermon at 9:15. Evening sermon at 7:30. The public is invited to attend these services.

A box social and program will be held Wednesday, Oct. 29, in Harmony, district No. 6, Florence Kehoe, teacher.

Masonic Notice: Janesville Lodge No. 55, F. and A. M., will meet in stated communication Monday evening, Oct. 27, at 7:30 p. m. Work in the E. A. degree. Visiting brothers welcome.

PRAYER BOOKS—Rosary beads and other religious articles for sale at St. Joseph's Convent.

Looking Around

MARRIAGE LICENSES
Ralph J. Norton and Bertina A. La Joint, both of Beloit, have made application at the office of the county clerk for a license to wed.

CRAMER RETURNS HOME
A. J. Cramer, Madison, returned home this morning after spending the last few days in Janesville and vicinity in the interest of organizing Cow Testers' associations.

TEN ROOMS RENTED
Ten furnished rooms were rented through the office of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

HELPS GREET PRINCE
Friends of Peter L. Myers received postcards today announcing he was in Windsor, Ontario. "Pete" declared he was there to greet the Prince of Wales on his arrival.

MAIL CARRIER RESIGNS
John P. McCue, carrier for rural route No. 9, has handed in his resignation at the postoffice, at the expiration of his term, which was November 1. The vacancy has not yet been filled.

FLASHLIGHT IS DONATED
Along with donations given by other merchants of the city to be used as prizes for the winning team in the members' campaign, at the 15th Annual Albrecht and Puzell have donated a flashlight.

MUSKRAT SEASON TO OPEN
It was announced at the office of the county clerk this morning that the open season for the hunting of muskrats would be from November 15 to April 8 instead of the season of Oct. 25 to April 20 as previously stated.

BUSINESS PROPERTY SOLD
William Lenz has sold his business block at 16 South River street to M. G. Jeffris, was announced today.

LODGE NEWS
J. W. Van Beynum of this city is one of the nominees for state major of the first battalion of the Odd Fellows, according to the nominations which were made last evening for state officers at the meeting of the Canton, Janesville No. 9.

Other nominees are: J. W. Hock, Kirk, Fox Lake, Ill.; J. H. Dugdale, Plattville, Ill.; G. G. Beiber, Madison, Ill.; J. W. Van Beynum of this city; and J. O. Johnson, Beloit, major of first battalion.

In December each canton which has made its own list of candidates will vote on the entire list of nominees.

Get your supper tonight, 5-8, at Cargill Methodist Church.

Great care has been taken in selecting our weekly specials. We have tried a great many combinations, but this week's special is by far the best we ever made.

Caramel and Peanut Brittle can be had at All Dealers.

Shurtleff's
ICE CREAM

NEWCOMERS to Janesville will find old book friends. At the Public Library HOURS:

Daily 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Thousands of our customers have received big returns. This return is not all in money but is composed of several factors, good rates of interest, safety of principal and SATISFACTION.

With our quarter century of experience we know what good securities are, we know the territory in which we operate thoroughly, we have a force of men who are honorable in their dealings and reliable in their judgments.

The service we render to our customers cannot be measured in dollars and cents when you consider the fact that during the long period of operations and the millions of dollars worth of securities we have handled and sold, not one of those customers has ever lost a penny from one of our investments.

We know, first hand, that the investments offered to our customers are as safe as our knowledge and experience can make them. They are comparable to every detail before offered for sale and they all have our recommendation as safe for your funds.

I have these securities for sale at all times and can supply you in any amount from $100 and upwards.

C. J. SMITH, Mgr.

E. R. WINSLOW
CASH GROCERY
24 N. Main.
Old phone 504. R. C. phone 372.

Thousands
of our customers have received big returns. This return is not all in money but is composed of several factors, good rates of interest, safety of principal and SATISFACTION.

With our quarter century of experience we know what good securities are, we know the territory in which we operate thoroughly, we have a force of men who are honorable in their dealings and reliable in their judgments.

The service we render to our customers cannot be measured in dollars and cents when you consider the fact that during the long period of operations and the millions of dollars worth of securities we have handled and sold, not one of those customers has ever lost a penny from one of our investments.

We know, first hand, that the investments offered to our customers are as safe as our knowledge and experience can make them. They are comparable to every detail before offered for sale and they all have our recommendation as safe for your funds.

I have these securities for sale at all times and can supply you in any amount from $100 and upwards.

C. J. SMITH, Mgr.

Gold-Staback Co.
15 W. Main St. Janesville, Wis.

Troy Laundry
14-16 S. Jackson St.
Both Phones.

Merchants and Savings Bank
OLDEST SAVINGS BANK IN ROCK COUNTY.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS
OVER $500,000.00.

We have the facilities to serve you in all lines of banking and are glad to be of any assistance in your business or financial affairs.

We solicit your account.

Open Tonight

COMMUNITY PLANS PRESENTED TO LEAGUE

A forceful talk on "Community Music and Drama" was given last evening at Library hall by Prof. Edgar B. Gordon of the University extension department, Madison. He addressed the members of the League of Janesville as a growing city and the responsibility of its citizens in regard to civic ideals. Tentative plans in regard to a community Christmas celebration which should be backed by a committee of representative citizens, and take in a program of music contributed by the musical talent and organizations of the city, some community singing, and a sincere Christmas play staged by the Drama League, was one of the things talked of to bring about a closer relation of individuals in the community. A free entertainment for everybody and possibly a properly supervised dance for the young people was proposed to close the evening.

Professor Gordon dwelt particularly on the thought that the new idea of social service linked up the artistic ability of the individual with the human needs of the community. That the doing of things in common helped greatly in keeping a nation or a city democratic in its attitude toward the individual.

Republicans of the Pacific coast think that San Francisco stands a good chance and ridicule the idea that the city is "too far removed from the center of politics" to allow it to be chosen.

JAMES RYAN FOUND DEAD WEST OF CITY
James M. Ryan was found dead at his home near the brick-yards on Pleasant street early last evening. County Coroner Lynn A. Whaley and Sheriff Fred Egan were called as neighbors feared the man might have been made a victim of foul play.

An investigation revealed the fact that death was due to natural causes. He had apparently been dead for several hours. No inquest will be held, Coroner Whaley announced today.

The deceased had been a life-long resident of Rock county. He was born in the town of Rock, Jan. 18, 1851.

Besides his wife and daughter, Leona, who live at Aurora, Mo., he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Dan Ryan, this city, and four brothers, Edward H., Joseph A., and Ambrose, all of this city; and J. F. Ryan, Montana.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

GROCERS REPORT SALE OF JELKE'S "GOOD LUCK"
MILK INCREASING

Good reports are coming in from all parts. Everyone likes Jelke's "Good Luck" evaporated milk.

The sale is absolutely guaranteed. Your money back if not absolutely satisfied.

HANLEY BROS.
Wholesale Commission Merchants
E. J. Murphy, Mgr.

Japan's Finest Tea
No matter how much you are willing to pay money can buy no better than the popular

"Roseleaf" at 60c lb.
Always ask for "Roseleaf" when buying Japan Tea.

Dedrick Bros.
Exclusive Agents:

Kaspar's Japan Tea
60c Per Pound

A delicious tea that is meeting with general favor from discriminating housewives.

Try a pound with your next order.

ROESLING BROS
Cor. Center & Western Aves.
7 PHONES, ALL 128.

Thousands
of our customers have received big returns. This return is not all in money but is composed of several factors, good rates of interest, safety of principal and SATISFACTION.

With our quarter century of experience we know what good securities are, we know the territory in which we operate thoroughly, we have a force of men who are honorable in their dealings and reliable in their judgments.

The service we render to our customers cannot be measured in dollars and cents when you consider the fact that during the long period of operations and the millions of dollars worth of securities we have handled and sold, not one of those customers has ever lost a penny from one of our investments.

We know, first hand, that the investments offered to our customers are as safe as our knowledge and experience can make them. They are comparable to every detail before offered for sale and they all have our recommendation as safe for your funds.

I have these securities for sale at all times and can supply you in any amount from $100 and upwards.

C. J. SMITH, Mgr.

Gold-Staback Co.
15 W. Main St. Janesville, Wis.

Troy Laundry
14-16 S. Jackson St.
Both Phones.

Merchants and Savings Bank
OLDEST SAVINGS BANK IN ROCK COUNTY.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS
OVER $500,000.00.

We have the facilities to serve you in all lines of banking and are glad to be of any assistance in your business or financial affairs.

We solicit your account.

Open Tonight

DANCING MASTERS TO DEVISE "LATEST"

Teachers of dancing from Chicago, Milwaukee, Rockford, Madison, Beloit, and Janesville will attend a meeting at the Apollo hall tomorrow afternoon. It is to be an informal affair. There will be no principal address given nor will there be any exhibition of dancing. The meeting is being arranged for the purpose of exchanging ideas in regard to the latest dances and plans for the coming winter season will be discussed. It is expected that 20 dancing masters will be in attendance. The local arrangements for the meeting are in the hands of George Hatch.

Frisco May Get 1920 Republican Convention
(BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.)

San Francisco, Cal.—Local politicians have commenced all manner of "pulling" to get the 1920 republican convention for the Pacific coast metropolis.

Republicans of the Pacific coast think that San Francisco stands a good chance and ridicule the idea that the city is "too far removed from the center of politics" to allow it to be chosen.

JAMES RYAN FOUND DEAD WEST OF CITY
James M. Ryan was found dead at his home near the brick-yards on Pleasant street early last evening. County Coroner Lynn A. Whaley and Sheriff Fred Egan were called as neighbors feared the man might have been made a victim of foul play.

An investigation revealed the fact that death was due to natural causes. He had apparently been dead for several hours. No inquest will be held, Coroner Whaley announced today.

The deceased had been a life-long resident of Rock county. He was born in the town of Rock, Jan. 18, 1851.

Besides his wife and daughter, Leona, who live at Aurora, Mo., he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Dan Ryan, this city, and four brothers, Edward H., Joseph A., and Ambrose, all of this city; and J. F. Ryan, Montana.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

GROCERS REPORT SALE OF JELKE'S "GOOD LUCK"
MILK INCREASING

Good reports are coming in from all parts. Everyone likes Jelke's "Good Luck" evaporated milk.

The sale is absolutely guaranteed. Your money back if not absolutely satisfied.

HANLEY BROS.
Wholesale Commission Merchants
E. J. Murphy, Mgr.

Japan's Finest Tea
No matter how much you are willing to pay money can buy no better than the popular

"Roseleaf" at 60c lb.
Always ask for "Roseleaf" when buying Japan Tea.

Dedrick Bros.
Exclusive Agents:

Kaspar's Japan Tea
60c Per Pound

A delicious tea that is meeting with general favor from discriminating housewives.

Try a pound with your next order.

ROESLING BROS
Cor. Center & Western Aves.
7 PHONES, ALL 128.

Thousands
of our customers have received big returns. This return is not all in money but is composed of several factors, good rates of interest, safety of principal and SATISFACTION.

With our quarter century of experience we know what good securities are, we know the territory in which we operate thoroughly, we have a force of men who are honorable in their dealings and reliable in their judgments.

The service we render to our customers cannot be measured in dollars and cents when you consider the fact that during the long period of operations and the millions of dollars worth of securities we have handled and sold, not one of those customers has ever lost a penny from one of our investments.

We know, first hand, that the investments offered to our customers are as safe as our knowledge and experience can make them. They are comparable to every detail before offered for sale and they all have our recommendation as safe for your funds.

I have these securities for sale at all times and can supply you in any amount from $100 and upwards.

C. J. SMITH, Mgr.

Gold-Staback Co.
15 W. Main St. Janesville, Wis.

Troy Laundry
14-16 S. Jackson St.
Both Phones.

Merchants and Savings Bank
OLDEST SAVINGS BANK IN ROCK COUNTY.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS
OVER $500,000.00.

We have the facilities to serve you in all lines of banking and are glad to be of any assistance in your business or financial affairs.

We solicit your account.

Open Tonight

OBITUARY

Mary Ellen O'Leary, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Leary, town of Rock, passed away this morning at 4 o'clock.

Her loss is mourned by her parents, brothers, James, Charles, William, and one sister, Margaret.

Funeral services will be held at St. Patrick's church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Mrs. James McNally
Mrs. James McNally, town of Harmony, passed away Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. McNally was born in New York city June 15, 1854. She was married to James McNally Nov. 27, 1889 at St. Rose's church, town of Fort.

Her loss is mourned by four children: Thomas McNally of this city; John and Clarence McNally, Janesville; and daughter Mrs. William Commons; also 16 grandchildren. Funeral services will be held Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the Catholic church at Milton. Interment will be made at Mt. Olivet cemetery, Edgerton.

Rumania Asks Organization Of Hungarian Police
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Lugano, Switzerland, Friday, Oct. 24.—King Ferdinand and Queen Marie of Rumania arrived here today for a short sojourn.

Municipal Bonds
Free from Federal Income Taxes
Being paid out of the taxes levied and collected by the issuing municipality, municipal bonds are a prior lien to every other form of debt.

Our complete list sent on request.
We sell single bonds.

The Hanchett Bond Co.
Inc. 1910.
MUNICIPAL BONDS
29 S. La Salle St. Chicago
JOHN C. HANCHETT
Resident Partner
455 N. Jackson St. Phone No. 30

PALENY
YOUNG AND YOUNG
OLIPHANT AND YOUNG

Business and Professional Directory

E. B. Loofboro, D.D.S.
PYORRHEA AND PREVENTATIVE DENTISTRY
Suite 504 and 505, Jackson Block
Janesville, Wis.

LYNN A. WHALEY
UNDERTAKER AND FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Mrs. Lynn Whaley Lady Assistant.
R. C. Phone 507. Bell Phone 208.

DR. E. SCHWEGLER
Osteopath
402 Jackson Bldg. R. C. Phone 224.
Bell Phone 675. Residence Phone: R. C. 1321; Bell, 1302.

DENTIST
DR. E. A. WORDEN
Office over Baker's Drug Store
123 W. Milwaukee St.
Janesville, Wis. Bell Phone 44; R. C. 1037 Red.
Office hours: 8:30 A. M. to 5:00 P. M.
Evenings & Sundays by appointment.

DR. E. H. DAMROW, D. C.
CHIROPRACTOR
Palmer School Graduate.
200 JACKMAN BLOCK
X-Ray Laboratory
Office Hours: 10 to 12 A. M.; 2 to 6 P. M.; Monday, Wednesday and Saturday evenings from 7 to 8. Both phones 870.
Residence phone R. C. 527 Red.

DRS. MUNN & FARNSWORTH
Physicians and Surgeons Offices Beverly Theatre Building, Second Floor.
Both Phones.

DR. EDITH BARTLET
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
212 Jackson Bldg.

Office hours: 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.
Office phones: Bell 878; R. C. Red 407. Residence phone: Bell, 949.

CHIROPRACTOR
G. H. ANGSTROM, D. C.
Palmer School Graduate
405 Jackson Block
Janesville, Wis. 537.
OFFICE HOURS:
1 to 4; and 5 to 7:45 P. M.

N. L. SAGE, M.D.
OSTEOPATH
222 Hayes Block.
R. C. Phone 510. Bell, 149.
15 N. Jackson St.

Merchants and Savings Bank
OLDEST SAVINGS BANK IN ROCK COUNTY.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS
OVER $500,000.00.

With the Women of Today

By Edith Moriarty.

We have heard a lot about the daring cameraman who went into the trenches to take pictures, or into the jungles or through all kinds of treacherous places, but it is unusual for a woman to do such things. Miss Louise Lowell, a young aviatrix in her early twenties, has just been engaged by the Fox News in the capacity of "cameramaid." Mr. Fox claims that she is the first cameramaid in motion pictures.

Miss Lowell is peculiarly fitted for her unique work, for she has traveled over most of the world and always, since she was old enough to use a camera, has one accompanied her on her trips. This young woman has had a most interesting life. Born of an American father and a British mother in Siam, she was educated by private tutors in India and China. Her mother died when she was 10 years old. The family was then in Siam, China. Following that she went with her father into Tibet. She knows the far east, the near east, the new world and old world by actual contact.

In Great Britain she first became interested in aviation. She holds a pilot's license and made several trips over the enemy's lines during the great war. Miss Lowell was a warm friend of Roland Garros, the noted French ace, and is now driving a Spad that he used.

Miss Louise Lowell.

The first assignment that was given to this brave and accomplished young woman was to cover the Prince of Wales trip through Canada. She has been given a roving assignment and will fly over the country here and there and take new pictures which you may see some time at your own favorite picture house.

"I think the most interesting thing in my life," said Miss Lowell to an interviewer, "was my first flight alone. Naturally I was a bit nervous, but I soon got over it. I am going wherever I can find adventure and it is more likely to be in New York than in the smallest town in Iowa."

Miss Lowell hopes to take pictures soon in the Katokie river country, that wild valley in the northwest territory, so full of material for news pictures at this time of year. All women will surely wish her success in both of the men's fields which she has entered, flying and photography.

SCHOOL TEACHERS IN ENGLAND MAY STRIKE

A special convention of the National Union of Teachers held a few days ago at Birmingham passed resolutions calling for 100 percent increase of salaries above the pre-war rates.

The teachers were discontented with the recommendations of the joint committee appointed by the government. The chairman declared that if the joint committee offered a remuneration of less than $1,000 it would find it put its fingers into a lion's nest and the whole profession would be up in arms.

The use of the strike weapon as a last resort was advocated by various speakers, and it also was suggested parents should be warned to keep their children out of the profession, tailing a satisfactory increase.

100,000 TEACHERS NEEDED

More than 100,000 positions in the public schools are either vacant or filled by teachers below standard, according to a report of the National Education Association made public recently.

The report also states that attendance at normal schools has decreased 20 percent since 1916.

J. J. Pershing de Stephano Gets a Start in Life

(By International News.) San Francisco, Cal.—John Joseph Pershing de Stephano should win in life's battle. He is starting out at one year of age with a letter from America's fighting general which he may treasure through life. The letter follows:

"My Dear Little Namesake: I have just been advised that your parents have conferred upon you my name. I wish to express to you the assurance of my best wishes for a happy and successful life. Cordially yours, JOHN J. PERSHING."

Dog Has Daily Race With Morning Express

(By International News.) Pittsburgh—Commuters who board trains at Edgewood station are treated every morning to a race between a dog and one of the expresses. The dog sets himself for the sprint and when the locomotive comes abreast starts off at a breakneck speed. The engineer looks for the animal every morning and jockeys his engine to make the race interesting.

PORTER

(By Gazette Correspondent.) Porter, Oct. 24—Friends were glad to learn of the safe arrival of Dennis Casey and son, Dinnie, from Rochester Tuesday. His son had submitted to an operation and has been ill for six weeks.

Relatives in this vicinity received word that Hazel McCarthy, Beloit, submitted to an operation Monday.

E. Davis, Evansville, was a business caller at the Elanau school Monday.

Mrs. Lawrence Barrett is visiting at the home of E. Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Earle, Charles, Clarence and Dinnie McCarthy, Leslie Viner and Joe Mullenway spent Wednesday evening at D. Casey's.

Mrs. and Mrs. Sampson and H. Wright called at the home of Mrs. M. McCarthy Sunday.

C. McCaslin is busy filling his slots.

John Sweeney and D. A. McCarthy were Janesville business callers Monday.

Maria Knight and Mabel Hanson spent the week end at Jefferson.

APOLLO THEATRE

ALL NEXT WEEK
Starting Monday, Oct. 27

Matinees at 2:30
Evenings at 7:15 & 9:15

The Photoplay With An Amazing Soul

MAYFLOWER PHOTOPLAY CORPORATION Presents

GEORGE LOANE TUCKER'S

PRODUCTION

"THE MIRACLE MAN"

from the play by GEORGE M. COHAN. Based on the story by FRANK L. PACKARD

Out of the Underworld!

IMAGINE the worst sharks that exist in New York's Chinatown — a daring cracksman, a beautiful girl as tough and wicked as a snake, a faker who counterfeits any deformity, a dope-fiend as sly as a weasel.

Imagine such crooks in a little village, invading the lives of other human beings as good as these are bad—their striving to bite into the good hearts.

Imagine! . . .

Imagine all you've known of good and bad in this world, and even then you can't imagine the wondrous appeal of "The Miracle Man."

PRICES

Matinees: Children 15c; adults 28c.

Evenings: Main floor and first 2 rows of balcony 35c; balance balcony 25c. Box seat 55c.

NOTICE: Tickets will not be reserved except in blocks of 10 or more.

A Paramount Artcraft Picture

COMING

Janesville's Greatest Home Talent

"Katcha-Koo"

A rollicking extravaganza of dancing, music, fun and girls.

Gorgeous Costumes—Special Scenes

200—Local Stars in the Cast—200

MYERS THEATRE

Tuesday and Wednesday
October 28, 29Box office reserval opens at 10 Monday morning. All advance seats must be exchanged.

PRICES: 50c, 75c, $1.00, plus war tax.

MAJESTIC

TODAY

HELEN GIBSON

in

"THE DEAD SHOT"

Also

PETE MORRISON and MAGDELANE

in

"NECK AND MOOSE"

Sunday and Monday

Albert Ray with Elinor Fair

in

"LOVE IS LOVE"

Here is a photoplay that proves Love to be the greatest force in the world. It lifts a young couple out of the depths of sin and sorrow and sets them on the sunny slope of peace and happiness.

Matinee, 2:30.

Evening, starting 7:00.

Orfordville News

[By Gazette Correspondent.]
Orfordville, Oct. 24.—John Heyerday and son received a large corn shredder Friday afternoon.

John Beck and family departed

Thursday for their new home at Janesville. Mrs. Will Eelson, Evansville, is at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jacobson.
Miss Celia Jacobson, Beloit, is in the village for a few days. She is a guest at the home of her mother.
Ralph Ketcher is improving his residence which he recently purchas-APOLLO FEATURE VAUDEVILLE
TONIGHTMatinee Daily 2:30
Evenings 7:30 and 9

W AND SUNDAY

Sorrento Sextette

A Melange of Melody and Mirth.

Napier and Yvonne

"The Spider and the Butterfly."

Colvin and Bath

Fun in a Firehouse.

Ethel Johnston

Character Comedienne.

Welcome Home Celebration Pictures

in addition to above bill.

Grand Hotel

Sunday Dinner

Grape Fruit Cocktail
Bisque of Tomato Kalamazoo Celery

Roast Pork Apple Sauce

Fried Chicken, ala Maryland

Boiled Leg of Mutton, Chili Sauce

Escalloped Oysters

Mashed Potatoes

Cut Asparagus

Head Lettuce Salad

Cranberry Pie

Apricot Sundae

Cake

Cold Slaw

Baked Sweet Potatoes

Baked Hubbard Squash

One Thousand Island Dressing

Lemon Meringue Pie

ed on Main street by raising it and putting a foundation wall of cement blocks under it.
Two autoists collided near the village Thursday evening with the result that both machines were brought in for repairs. No one was injured by the accident.
Dr. Rostad of northern Wisconsin is visiting with relatives here. The doctor was a resident of this section of Wisconsin many years ago.Thirty Burned to Death
When Trains Collide[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Beuthen, Silesia, Oct. 24.—Thirty persons were burned to death in a collision of a passenger train with a freight train near Kranowitz, Silesia.APOLLO THEATRE TO HAVE NEW APPARATUSWhen "The Miracle Man," which comes to the Apollo next week, is shown on a new screen the latest model projecting machines will be used. Manager James Zanias today said a battery of two machines, a new generator and a screen had been ordered and that they would be in place on the first night this great picture is presented.
"The Miracle Man" setting ranges from the world slums of New York's Chinatown to the grandeur of high mountains and the majesty of the ocean. The central figure is the white-haired patriarch who lives in the hills near the sea and who has the reputed power to heal the sick and cripples. Tom Burke aims his band in New York's underworld realm of his miracles and conceive the idea of capitalizing them for their own gain. So they go to the town where the old man lives and frame up a miracle for him. o their surprise they discover he really possesses the healing powers accredited to him.
Gradually under the influence of their new environment there is worked a transformation in the hearts of the crooks that makes the charming girl she is at heart; that evolves a farm hand out of a dope fiend, and finally brings out the best nature of even the hardened, sophisticated Tom Burke himself.Among those in the cast who have been able to bring out the strength of the picture are Thomas McElhann, Elinor Fair, Joseph J. Dowling and Betty Compson.KATCHA KOO READY FOR PRESENTATIONKatcha Koo, an oriental musical comedy, will make its appearance at the Myers opera house Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.
The play is sponsored by the women of St. Mary's church. More than 200 of the young people of the city have been secured to take part.
Breathing of the orient, nothing in the way of costumes and scenery has been spared to make the production one of the Far East. Veiled dancers, bowing fakirs, and antique collectors make up the setting of Rasputin, India.
The entire plot is woven around Dr. Irving Clark, who will play the role of Katcha Koo. Maharajah's four wives will be represented by the Misses Genevieve Cushing, Hazel
Kennedy, Flora Ryan, and Gertrude Cassidy.
A party of Americans visiting the orient for the first time is made up of Mrs. Chattie Gadding, Miss Margaret Denning, her two daughters, Misses Betty and Hazel Gower, the curio collectors, Edward and John Thiele and Lester McCloy.
Twenty groups of dancers have been carefully trained by Lester E.
McCoy, who produced the play in Beloit three weeks ago. Many of the school children of the city have been secured for the tableau of patriotic characters. A chorus of polo dancers has been picked from the students of the high school.The cars took fire immediately after the collision. Sixty persons were severely injured and 18 were slightly hurt in the wreck.Get the habit of reading the classified ads—it will pay you.

MYERS THEATRE

TONIGHT and SUNDAY

VAUDEVILLE VAUDEVILLE

4—BIG ACTS—4

Headed by

BROOKLYN FOUR

Comedy Quartette

The Lilletas

Aerial Novelty.

Thomas and McDonald

The Brazilian Nuts.

WALMSLEY AND LEIGHTON

Simp Simpson.

Also FEATURE PICTURES

2 shows Daily, 7:30 and 9:00.

Mat. every Sat. and Sun. 2:30.

Lady Astor is Likely to Be Member of CommonsLondon, Oct. 25.—All London newspapers comment on the probable candidacy for the house of commons of Viscountess Astor, the belief being general that she will accept the nomination and that she will be a popular candidate.
"Her Ladyship," says the Daily Mail, "is reputed to hold advanced views on some subjects, especially prohibition. The labor element probably will want to know her ideas on this subject before deciding upon its attitude in the campaign." No labor candidate has been chosen.Shop in the Gazette before you shop in the stores.DELANVAN WOMAN
DIES SUDDENLY(By Special Correspondent)
Delavan, Friday, Oct. 24.—Mrs.
Mike Duggan, residing east of Delavan, passed away at her home about 9:40 Thursday night. Mrs. Duggan was in good health. She went to bed as usual but complained of having a smothering feeling. Within a few minutes she was dead.
She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Bessie and Irene, and three sons, Frank, Arnold, and Russell.

Get Started Now

Learn to dance the right way at our

Dancing School

and Social Assemblies at

Apollo Hall

Monday Eve. Oct. 27

and every Monday night

Class at 8 P. M. Social Assembly, 9 to 12. Our class is the place for you to learn how to dance and if you know how it is the place for you to better your dancing and acquire new steps.Excellent Music—The most beautiful Ball Room in the city—A proper place for you to go.Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, members American Nat'l.
Ass'n, Masters of Dancing, conduct the classes and chaperone the assemblies.

BEVERLY

Matinee, 2:30 P. M.

Evening 7, 8:15, and 9:30.

Tonight

Madge Kennedy

in

"A Perfect Lady"

Sunday

Clara Kimball Young

in

"The Better Wife"

Also Strand Comedy.

All the Big SellersIncluding
"Just For Me and Mary"
"Honeymoon"
"Give Me The Sultan's Harem"
"Whoa January"
"That's The Way That I've Missed You"
"Just Blue"
"Khorassan"
"The Brat"
"Cho San"
"Smiling Lips"
"Wait Till You Get Them Up In The Air Boys"
10cBoyd Hill's Song Shop

Remember Where

Get the habit of reading the classified ads—it will pay you.MONDAY ONLYThe value giving power of this new store is again demonstrated on first quality merchandise36 inch StandardCount
PercaleSoft finish, full width, fresh, clean patterns suitable for house dresses, aprons and children's dresses.
White grounds with stripes and figures, blue and gray grounds with white figures.An Unusual Value
IndeedFOR
MONDAY
ONLYLimit of 10 yds to a customer19c per yd.O'Brien & Duddington
The Store of Personal Service

....The Apollo Club....

Announces Its List of Artists to Appear in Recital for the Season of 1919-20

MISS MARNA SHARLOW

Prima Donna Soprano, Chicago Opera Ass'n. Season 1917-18.

MISS EDNA DARCH

Lyric Soprano. The Philad Press says of her—"Her Voice is a Soprano of Wonderful Clarity of Tone."

GEORGE RASLEY

The American Tenor of Which Frederick Doughey, Art Critic, Says of His Voice, "Lovely in Quality and Dignified in all Ranges."

MISS LUCILLE MANKER

Pianist. Has Appeared as Soloist, American Symphony Orchestra.

MRS. GEORGE HALL-QUICK

Pianist. Known from Ocean to Ocean as an Artist of Rare Ability.

YON GELTCH—Violinist.

MILWAUKEE McDOWELL—ORCHESTRA

20 Pieces.

This is considered by the directors as the finest program ever offered by the Apollo club.If you love beautiful music or wish to promote the cause of good music, you are cordially invited to become a member.
Membership for one year.....$4.00
Annual renewals.....$3.50
Opening number will be given early in November.
Date to be announced later.

GEO. S. PARKER, President

MRS. JOHN G. REXFORD, Vice-Pres.

W. F. BOSWORTH, Sec'y.

WM. BLADON, Treas.

DIRECTORS—

MRS. A. J. HARRIS,

MRS. JOHN G. REXFORD,

E. E. VAN POOL,

GEO. S. PARKER,

MRS. DE ALTON THOMAS,

F. F. LEWIS.

MISS RUTH JEFFRIS, Business Representative

Dinner Stories

She was the sort of woman who always tells everybody her business. With a cheery smile she seated herself at the counter of a haberdashery and began:

"My husband has been very ill—very ill, indeed. So I have to do his shopping, and I want a nice shirt."

"Certainly, madam," said the courteous clerk, "but first and chiefly—"

"Oh, no!" she explained in hurried tones. "The doctor says he must avoid everything with starch in it."

"Alice is an eight-year-old youngster from the southern part of the state and her uncle recently brought her to the capital to see the monument, and other places of interest. The morning after his arrival he took her down to the office of a friend and introduced her as Alice."

"So you came to see Indianapolis," remarked one of them. "I suppose you're anxious to begin. Which do you want to see—the state house or the monument?"

"Alice looked at him and then spoke truthfully. 'Oh, I want to see both of them,' she told him. 'But most of all I want to go to one of those stores where you can get an ice cream sandwich for a nickel.'—Indianapolis News.

"Will you have this man to be thy wedded husband?" asked the clergyman.

"With a modesty that lent additional charm to her rustic beauty she replied, 'If you please.'"

"I understand our new neighbors are strict vegetarians."

"Strict?" she said they are! They won't even let their children eat animal crackers."

AND HE DID.

WHAT A FINE VIEW! I'll sit on this big rock and enjoy it!

AND HE DID.

Shop in the Gazette before you shop in the stores.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

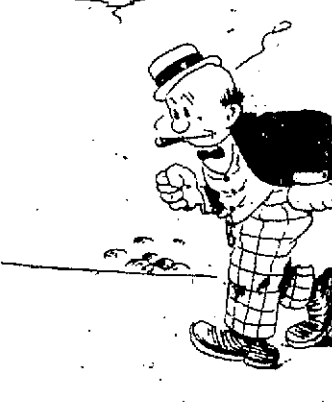

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

In the deepening darkness her fingers found his arm. The motion of the car made the violence of her trembling, but for a time the pounding of her heart would not allow her speech.

HANK and PETE

HANK WAS SENT TO JAIL FOR NOT PAYING HIS BOARD BILLS—AN I MUST GO UP TO SEE HIM. THIS ISN'T VISITOR'S DAY, BUT I CAN TALK TO HIM FROM OUTSIDE THE GATE!

HELLO HANK. HOW DO YOU LIKE YOUR NEW LODGING HOUSE?

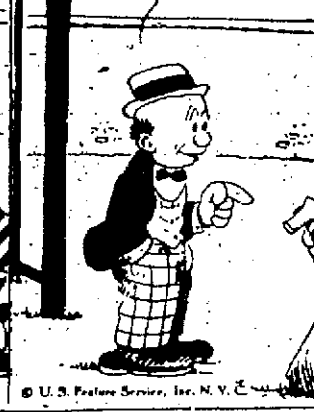

GOSH, I CAN'T HEAR A WORD HANK'S SAYING WITH THAT GUY POUNDING ON THAT CHISEL!

SAY, WOULD YOU MIND STOPPING YOUR HAMMERING ON THAT FOR A MINUTE OR TWO?

NOT A BIT, BOSS—

I'VE GOT 10 YEARS TO FINISH THIS LITTLE JOB IN!

THAT'S A FAKE TICKET!

THE BOOB WHO TRIES TO USE A PASS FOR THE BALL GAME THAT A FRIEND GIVES HIM!

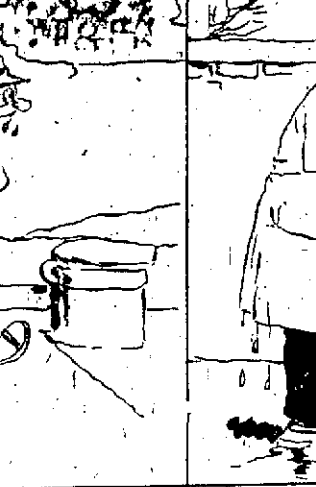

OFFICER CRUST.

I THOUGHT YOU SAID YOU COULD RUN ALL MILES MOTOR BOAT, WHY YOU GUM YOU COULDN'T RUN A TOY ENGINE.

IT WASN'T MY FAULT IF THE BOAT CAPSIZED.

HERE COMES THAT SWELL MISS MCKNITTINGBAG. NOW WATCH ME QUEER YOU WITH HER.

HOW DID YOU BOYS GET YOUR CLOTHES SO WET?

I'M GOING TO TELL YOU SOMETHING ABOUT THIS FELLOW, WE WERE IN A BOAT. IT CAPSIZED, THE COWARD GRABBED ALL OF THE LIFE BELTS, BUT I DIDN'T SINK.

I SUPPOSE IT WAS YOUR HEAD WHICH KEPT YOU UP?

HE DIDN'T EMBARRASS ED MUCH!

By R. BROOK

BRINGING UP FATHER

I WANT YOU TO GO GET YOUR DRESS SUIT AT THE TAILOR. TELL HIM I'LL PAY HIM AS I WOULDN'T TRUST YOU WITH THE MONEY.

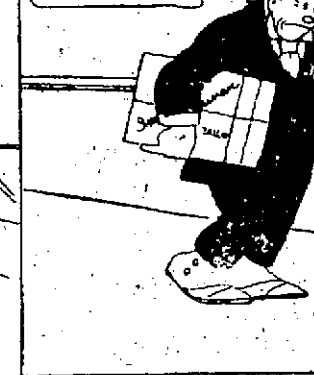

I THINK YOU OUGHT TO GIVE ME A DIME FOR CAR FARE.

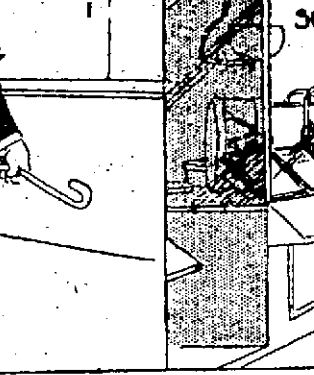

WELL—I GOT THE SUIT—NOW I'VE GOT TO WALK HOME—I HAVEN'T EVEN GOT A CIGAR.

GOODS BOUGHT AND SOLD

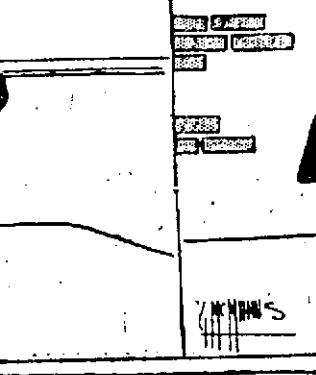

WONDER?

TAXI!

By George McManus.

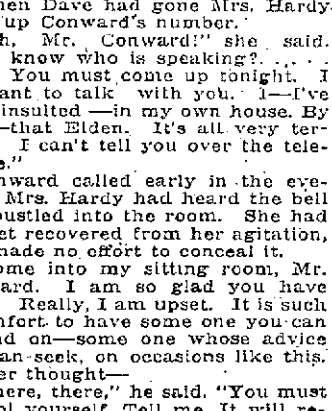

By George McManus.

GOOD NIGHT!

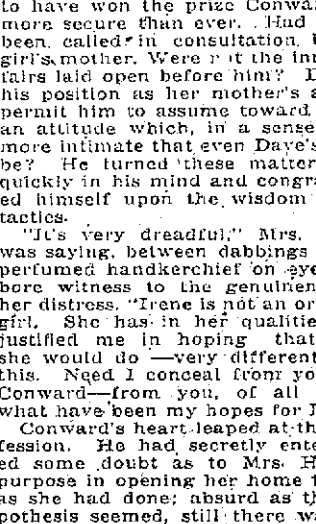

She—No doubt, you think I am older than I really am.

He—Not at all. I'm sure you're not as old as you look.

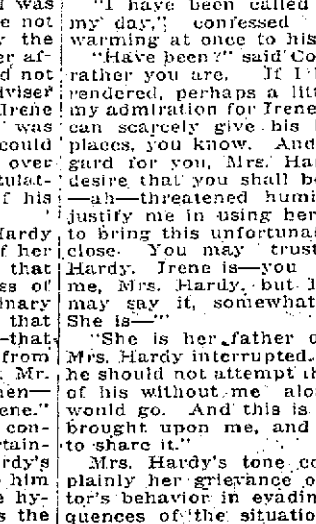

HE DIDN'T EMBARRASS ED MUCH!

By R. BROOK

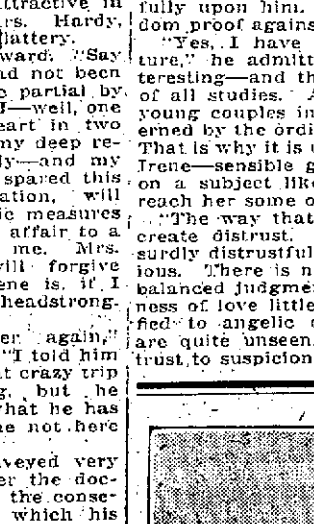

HE DIDN'T EMBARRASS ED MUCH!

By R. BROOK

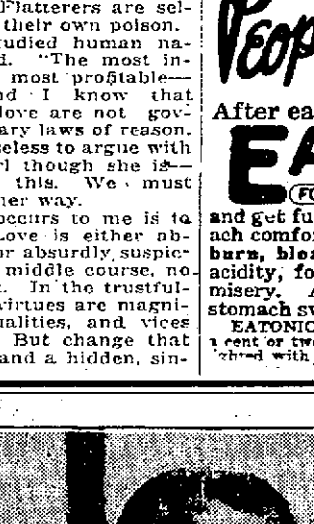

HE DIDN'T EMBARRASS ED MUCH!

By R. BROOK

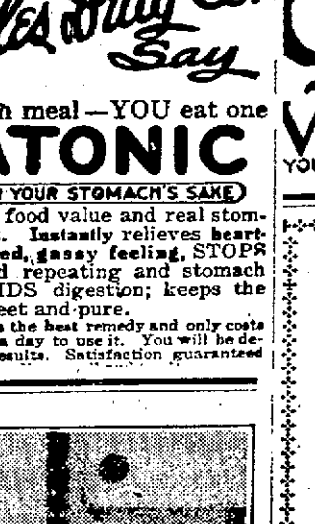

HE DIDN'T EMBARRASS ED MUCH!

By R. BROOK

HE DIDN'T EMBARRASS ED MUCH!

By R. BROOK

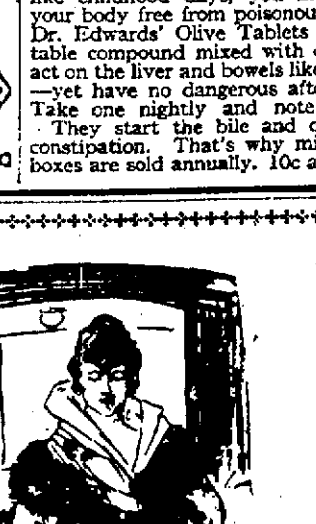

HE DIDN'T EMBARRASS ED MUCH!

By R. BROOK

HE DIDN'T EMBARRASS ED MUCH!

By R. BROOK

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

In the deepening darkness her fingers found his arm. The motion of the car made the violence of her trembling, but for a time the pounding of her heart would not allow her speech.

"Dave," she said at length, "I want to tell you that I think you—that I—Oh, I've been very selfish and proud—". Her fingers had followed his arm to the shoulder, and the car had tilted to a swerve as she fought as long as I can, Dave. I—I always wanted to—to lose, you know; and now—I surrender."

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

In the deepening darkness her fingers found his arm. The motion of the car made the violence of her trembling, but for a time the pounding of her heart would not allow her speech.

"Dave," she said at length, "I want to tell you that I think you—that I—Oh, I've been very selfish and proud—". Her fingers had followed his arm to the shoulder, and the car had tilted to a swerve as she fought as long as I can, Dave. I—I always wanted to—to lose, you know; and now—I surrender."

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

In the deepening darkness her fingers found his arm. The motion of the car made the violence of her trembling, but for a time the pounding of her heart would not allow her speech.

"Dave," she said at length, "I want to tell you that I think you—that I—Oh, I've been very selfish and proud—". Her fingers had followed his arm to the shoulder, and the car had tilted to a swerve as she fought as long as I can, Dave. I—I always wanted to—to lose, you know; and now—I surrender."

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitchen and Other Poems"
Copyright by Harper & Brothers

But Irene's eyes were on the sunset on the slowly fading color of the cloudlands overhead. Something of that color played across her face, mellowing, softening, drawing as it seemed, the very soul to cheeks and lips and eyes. Dave raised in his speech to regard her, and her beauty rushed upon him, engulfed him, overwhelmed him in such poignancy of tenderness that it seemed for a moment all his resolves must be swept away and he must storm the citadel that would not surrender to siege.

Only action could hold him. He resolved to press down the accelerator until the steel lungs of his motor were drinking power to their utmost capacity and the car roared furiously down the stretches of the country road.

It was dusk when he had burnt out his violence, and, chastened and spent, he turned the machine to hum back gently to the forgotten city. Irene, by some fine telepathy, had followed vaguely the course of his emotions; had followed them in delicious excitement and fear and hope. She sensed in some subtle feminine way the impulse that had sent him roaring into the distance; she watched his powerful hand on the wheel; his clear, steady eye; the minute accuracy with which he controlled his flying motor; and she prayed—and did not know what or why she prayed. But a color not all of the dying twilight lit her cheek as she guessed—she feared—she hoped—that she had prayed that he might forget this fine resolve—that he might at last outride his head.

In the deepening darkness her fingers found his arm. The motion of the car made the violence of her trembling, but for a time the pounding of her heart would not allow her speech.

"Dave," she said at length, "I want to tell you that I think you—that I—Oh, I've been very selfish and proud—". Her fingers had followed his arm to the shoulder, and the car had tilted to a swerve as she fought as long as I can, Dave. I—I always wanted to—to lose, you know; and now—I surrender."

THE COW PUNCHER

Heart and Home Problems

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man of twenty and am going with a girl about the same age. I have been with her six or eight times and think a great deal of her, but never mentioned it. She is a fine, healthy, clean, intelligent and very capable.

The last month I have not been with her very much, but she always speaks. How can I make her feel the same way? I never call for any other girl. Do you think two dates a week are too often? I don't want to be foolish, but I don't want to be too distant either.

Is it the proper thing in case I do not see her for several days to call at the house or should I wait to be invited?

Would you advise me to keep company with other girls, or would it be just as well not to since I care for her alone?

I believe in taking things slow, for I think this is a very important step in a man's life.

What would you advise? I am willing to take advice from any other person. JACK.

Two dates a week are not too often. When you have not seen her for several days, call at her home, but if she has a telephone, phone and ask permission first. If you see that she is annoyed when you come, do not call again without asking permission.

I would not advise you to keep company with other girls since you do not want to. Sometimes, it is a good plan, but in your case does not seem necessary.

Do not tell the girl that you care for her until she shows by her attitude toward you that she cares for you. This is a matter which must be taken slowly. Do make her sure.

INNER GOWN SHOWS FRENCH INFLUENCE

By ELOISE.

She Married an Average Man

By ZOE BECKLEY.

For two weeks I have made no entry in my diary because life was too full. It seems to me as if I have examined a year's living into those 14 days, so writing has been crowded on each other's heels. The woman who writes these words is not the woman who so lately lived gently and uneventfully in a Centerville bungalow.

Let me try and set things down in order. We are thank God, comfortably settled in our little apartment. Thanks to my taste for furnishings and Athena Hast's commonsensical suggestions, the place looks charming and is "livable."

Even Jim likes it, although he doesn't know why. Manlike, he observes, "I don't like it, but I like the fact that there are comfortable chairs, a roomy table, not too much order or fussiness—and his" favorite pipes where he can always find them. I look Athena Hast's advice about the "getaway" room, and shall bless her for it to my dying day. To the casual eye it appears just a room, but it is the "getaway" room. The door is always open, save when I am shut away behind it with the key safely turned in the lock.

This happens on a variety of occasions, I. e., when Jim sniffs so that I cannot sleep; when Jim and Athena Hast are talking blarney; when I have the nervous fidgets and can't bear to be either soiled or petted; when I have a letter to write; when I have a special private thought to think; and lastly, when for any reason Jim and are not in what Athena calls a "one-room mood."

GIRLS OF TODAY

By HELEN RANDOLPH

The other day a physician told me that he had been at a little dinner the night before. The guests being invited were a club.

"As I looked around that crowd," he said, "and thought of the different ills those people were suffering from, according to my personal knowledge as their physician, I just thought what hypocrites we all are and wondered how they could seem to be happy and agreeable."

No doubt it is true that the majority of people one meets are suffering from some illness or other in greater or lesser degrees. The person is a run aris, but what a blessing it is after all, that convention decrees that the proper response to the inquiry concerning one's health is "fine," almost before the mind has taken in the subject of the inquiry.

For after all, who is really interested to know whether or not you have a headache or an eyeache, or are suffering from some imaginary ill? Outside one's own family or intimate friends, there are few who feel other than that who are in the inquiry after health starts a long recital of woes. It is depressing to hear about another's troubles. One has enough of his own to think about.

There is another feature. Telling about one's ills becomes a habit, and one may quickly become that greatly-to-be-avoided hypochondriac from whom the knowing few, as from a pestilence. On the other hand, if one wills, he may often drive away the depression caused by over-fatigue or a slight indisposition.

There is a third feature, and a little deal of kindness done, or sometimes just the pleasure and relaxation of making a lengthy and perfect toilet will take away all that tired feeling. I have found myself often to do some task that I considered myself too tired to perform just through thinking: "What a hypocrite I am, for if some one will call up and invite me to grand opera tonight, every vestige of fatigue would quickly disappear."

Try that plan of calling yourself a hypocrite some time and see if it doesn't work.

Questions and Answers
Dear Miss Randolph:

I am 20 years old and am engaged to a girl of 17. We have been sweethearts since we were children. I have finished two years in college and my parents want me to go on, but I want to marry. I am thinking seriously of taking that step. I am making thirty dollars a week. What do you think I ought to do?

J. B.

I do not blame your parents for wanting you to continue your college course, for even if you do not intend to be a professional man, a college education will broaden you and perhaps bring you big opportunities. You might be able to live on $30 a week at present if you marry, but do you want to continue working for that amount? Your sweetheart ought to be willing to wait until you have finished your college course before

Dear Miss Randolph:

I am 20 years old and am engaged to a girl of 17. We have been sweethearts since we were children. I have finished two years in college and my parents want me to go on, but I want to marry. I am thinking seriously of taking that step. I am making thirty dollars a week. What do you think I ought to do?

J. B.

I do not blame your parents for wanting you to continue your college course, for even if you do not intend to be a professional man, a college education will broaden you and perhaps bring you big opportunities. You might be able to live on $30 a week at present if you marry, but do you want to continue working for that amount? Your sweetheart ought to be willing to wait until you have finished your college course before

Dear Miss Randolph:

I am 20 years old and am engaged to a girl of 17. We have been sweethearts since we were children. I have finished two years in college and my parents want me to go on, but I want to marry. I am thinking seriously of taking that step. I am making thirty dollars a week. What do you think I ought to do?

J. B.

INNER GOWN SHOWS FRENCH INFLUENCE

By ELOISE.

Health Talks

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician and Author.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Written names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written. For diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address, Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

THE EXPECTANT MOTHER'S TEETH.

This expectant mother whose teeth are kept in good condition usually has a number of industrial "gossips" some of them doctors and dentists. I regret to say, who harbor the dangerous delusion that it is unsafe or unwise for a pregnant mother to have necessary dental treatment. This sad mistake has caused a great deal of misery and unhappiness in the world.

No intelligent expectant mother should hesitate or postpone submitting to any necessary dental operation any time during pregnancy. No competent dentist will fear to give necessary dental treatment. And no worthwhile physician permits his judgment to be warped in this matter by the superstitious fancies and outright lies of ignorant people. The mother-to-be has far more to fear from neglect of her teeth than has ever happened to such a one whose teeth were properly treated.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
What Consumption Means.

A trained nurse, twenty years old, told me that the worst form of tuberculosis was in the bones, a waste ing away of the tissues. Is this what tuberculosis is termed? C. V. D. or cardio-vascular degeneration? I read that C. V. D. was wasting away of the tissues. I have two quite dissimilar diseases thoroughly confused. Generally when a nurse, purporting to be trained, begins to teach you pathology, she draws more on imagination and romance than on her education. If she has any. Consumption was the name formerly given to lung tuberculosis in an advanced stage.

Heart-artery wearing out is a common cause of impaired health and strength after thirty-five and probably the most common cause of death in this age. But take care, twenty years or so for C. V. D. to put a victim down and out.

Many persons say that one who eats a lot of fresh ripe tomatoes, especially a bathing or towel to cover the hair for three or four hours. Then shampoo. Repeat this any night or day. By drawing strands of hair from the scalp, the hair will not vinegar the nits may be removed.

Catching Editions.
Dr. Brady says that it is impossible in the space available to answer more than a few of the many questions in this column. He is therefore able to print an answer in a particular issue of the paper.

The way to insure a reply promptly is to enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

EVERYDAY HELPS

By GRANDMOTHER WELLS

Dessert is such a welcome part of the meal in most households that it should be had every day, if possible. And there is no reason why it shouldn't be possible. It is a necessary part of the meal, supplying the sweets, to omit it will be to leave a gap in the arrangement of the meal. Dessert can be very cheap.

Fill up the rest of the measurement with water.

One satisfactory, and quickly prepared cornstarch recipe, is to boil a pint of milk and two tablespoons of sugar. Just as it comes to a boil add two tablespoons of cornstarch dissolved in a little cold water. Keep over the fire for a few minutes to cook the cornstarch. Then take from the stove, add vanilla and some marshmallow cream, which "comes already prepared in bottles."

Beat to brown on top. Serve hot.

What we parents ought to do is to look for the cause of the "grouch" and root it out. Ten chances to one it is due to one of two things or a combination of them: Indigestion and an insufficient amount of undisturbed sleep.

Healthy, happy and contented children have plenty of sleep. Healthy, happy, and contented children are a pleasure to all.

The failure of many parents to realize and follow these simple truths enables a physician to ride comfortably in a fine motor car while his persistently blind clients walk.

Practical Anti-Dance Sermon
Superior Select dancing groups in the parlor under proper supervision graduate into "shimmy" and "cheek to cheek" according to the Rev. Edward Evenson, Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, in an audience sermon. "Why should our good money be spent for an instructor in the normal school to teach our children and youth to dance when in our homes we have warned these same young people of the dangers that lurk in the path of those who seek enjoyment in this way?" he asked.

At 11:30, he was still in front with a clear view while the crowd was jammed around him and all around. At 12:45 he began to weaken. The great general hadn't arrived, but still he stood in front and he had stood there already four hours and 15 minutes. Certainly, he could wait a while longer.

He assumed that the general was due in 20 minutes, so he summoned up strength enough to stand it that long.

At 12:55 and one at a time, a squad of police, the tallest and broadest on the city's force—seven foot tall—lined up in front of the rope, and Pectoris, being a small man, had great difficulty in finding a knothole.

At 1:05 a row of Boy Scouts with flags, big army flags, lined up in front of the police guard.

Exactly at 1:15 the great general arrived and finding a sliver of a view between two policemen and over the heads of some scouts, Pectoris was just about able to see the general's face, when the boys unfurled their flags, and the general passed on, unseen by Pectoris.

Thus it was that he crawled home and fell into Angina's arms.

At 11:30, he was still in front with a clear view while the crowd was jammed around him and all around. At 12:45 he began to weaken. The great general hadn't arrived, but still he stood in front and he had stood there already four hours and 15 minutes. Certainly, he could wait a while longer.

He assumed that the general was due in 20 minutes, so he summoned up strength enough to stand it that long.

At 12:55 and one at a time, a squad of police, the tallest and broadest on the city's force—seven foot tall—lined up in front of the rope, and Pectoris, being a small man, had great difficulty in finding a knothole.

At 1:05 a row of Boy Scouts with flags, big army flags, lined up in front of the police guard.

Exactly at 1:15 the great general arrived and finding a sliver of a view between two policemen and over the heads of some scouts, Pectoris was just about able to see the general's face, when the boys unfurled their flags, and the general passed on, unseen by Pectoris.

Thus it was that he crawled home and fell into Angina's arms.

At 11:30, he was still in front with a clear view while the crowd was jammed around him and all around. At 12:45 he began to weaken. The great general hadn't arrived, but still he stood in front and he had stood there already four hours and 15 minutes. Certainly, he could wait a while longer.

He assumed that the general was due in 20 minutes, so he summoned up strength enough to stand it that long.

At 12:55 and one at a time, a squad of police, the tallest and broadest on the city's force—seven foot tall—lined up in front of the rope, and Pectoris, being a small man, had great difficulty in finding a knothole.

At 1:05 a row of Boy Scouts with flags, big army flags, lined up in front of the police guard.

Exactly at 1:15 the great general arrived and finding a sliver of a view between two policemen and over the heads of some scouts, Pectoris was just about able to see the general's face, when the boys unfurled their flags, and the general passed on, unseen by Pectoris.

Thus it was that he crawled home and fell into Angina's arms.

At 11:30, he was still in front with a clear view while the crowd was jammed around him and all around. At 12:45 he began to weaken. The great general hadn't arrived, but still he stood in front and he had stood there already four hours and 15 minutes. Certainly, he could wait a while longer.

He assumed that the general was due in 20 minutes, so he summoned up strength enough to stand it that long.

At 12:55 and one at a time, a squad of police, the tallest and broadest on the city's force—seven foot tall—lined up in front of the rope, and Pectoris, being a small man, had great difficulty in finding a knothole.

At 1:05 a row of Boy Scouts with flags, big army flags, lined up in front of the police guard.

Exactly at 1:15 the great general arrived and finding a sliver of a view between two policemen and over the heads of some scouts, Pectoris was just about able to see the general's face, when the boys unfurled their flags, and the general passed on, unseen by Pectoris.

Thus it was that he crawled home and fell into Angina's arms.

At 11:30, he was still in front with a clear view while the crowd was jammed around him and all around. At 12:45 he began to weaken. The great general hadn't arrived, but still he stood in front and he had stood there already four hours and 15 minutes. Certainly, he could wait a while longer.

He assumed that the general was due in 20 minutes, so he summoned up strength enough to stand it that long.

Household Hints

MENU HINT.

Breakfast.

Oatmeal. Top Milk.

Hot Baking Powder Biscuits.

Peach Preserves.

Coffee.

Landrum.

Cream of Tomato Soup.

Crackers.

Nut Bread.

Apple Sauce.

Cocoa.

Dinner.

Baked Corn.

Cabbage Salad.

White Bread and Butter.

Dutch Apple Pie.

Coffee.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Mexican Chili.—One pound round steak, diced; two very large onions, sliced; stew these together for one hour; then add one cup diced potatoes (raw), one cup chopped kidney beans; cook 15 minutes; water.

Spaghetti.—One cup of cooked spaghetti, with tomato sauce, salt and pepper, and one tablespoon chili pepper, and cook 15 minutes; water.

Cabbage Salad.—Chop one-half head of cabbage nice and fine, add two pimientos chopped in bits, salt; then add a cream mayonnaise dressing with white of egg, sift over pulverized sugar and brown.

When cold serve in strips. These are nice filled up with whipped cream in the center, and make a dainty dish.

Nut Bread.—One and one-half cups milk, two cups white flour, one and one-half cups graham flour, five teaspoons baking powder, two-thirds cup sugar, three-quarters teaspoon salt, one cup raisins, mix all well and bake three-quarters of an hour.

Stuffed Spaghetti.—Take two small spare ribs, wash, dry and salt. Then make dressing as for chicken. Place between ribs and tie together. Place in roaster surrounded by potatoes. Cook slowly until done. Then make brown gravy. This is fine.

Corn Flake Dinner.—One cup coconut, two tablespoons corn syrup, one-quarter cup sugar, whites of two eggs, two cups milk, mix all well and cook coconut and syrup in double boiler until soft. Add sugar and corn flakes. Beat in whites of eggs and bake in form of drop cakes.

DESSERTS.

Pineapple Bavarian Cream.—One pint of canned pineapple, one cup sugar, one pint thick cream, one-half package gelatin, one-half cup cold water, one-quarter cup boiling water. Mix gelatin with cold water, then add boiling water and dissolve over fire.

Chop pineapple and simmer it with

Thirsting for Knowledge English Crowd Museums

[BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.] London.—Mummies are booming, and the British museum is coming into its own. The dust of ages is being stirred up by large crowds, who follow the scholarly lecturer as he conducts a sort of intellectual tour through the corridors of time. Also at the South Kensington museum there are large gatherings to "see the wheels go round" in the sections of science and inventions. Either the public is being convinced with a thirst for knowledge, or the paucity of London's free exhibitions is causing a run on the available institutions.

Read Gazette classified ads.

Garland Ranges

TALK TO LOWELL

Women's Apparel

THE COAT

Our first invitation to you to inspect our Christmas line of Dolls—little ones, large ones, all prices.

Have you seen the Cotton Mercerized Women's Hose at 39c a pair? 59c value.

6 BLANKETS 300 cotton, heavy fleece, gary blankets, placed on sale at $2.95 a pair. 100 pairs "two-in-one" blankets in blue, pink and yellow, plaid $8.95. See Our Windows.

You can purchase no better corset than the $3.25 up. "Sa Camille"

S. & H. STAMPS

Special Opportunity to buy a

Holland Player Piano

for $545.00

A beautiful Walnut case—highly polished finish—an instrument with the newly improved TONE-SHADING devices.

Here is a WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY TO FILL YOUR HOME WITH EVER-READY MUSIC, AT A COST BELOW THE PRESENT ADVANCED PRICES.

If you neglect music in your home you shut off from your life, resources within yourself which nature had intended you should have as a solace and a companion in time of trouble and distress and a constant means of wholesome pleasure.

We cannot guarantee this price after November 1st.

Kuhlrow's Music Store

52 S. Main St. Opp. Court House Park Both Phones

The Daily Novelette

THE WAITER'S WAIT.

"Angina!" his face was deathly pale. "Pectoris! What is it?" Instantly she saw that something was the matter and rushed over to where he stood leaning up against the door.

Such a weary, disappointed, lifeless look had never been seen on a man's face.

Never had a human countenance depicted such misery.

"Great heavens!" Angina cried out, desperately, as she caught him while he dropped.

Three days later, Pectoris Glamm recovered enough to tell his story.

The morning of his collapse, the

THE WAITER'S WAIT.

"Angina!" his face was deathly pale. "Pectoris! What is it?" Instantly she saw that something was the matter and rushed over to where he stood leaning up against the door.

Such a weary, disappointed, lifeless look had never been seen on a man's face.

Never had a human countenance depicted such misery.

"Great heavens!" Angina cried out, desperately, as she caught him while he dropped.

Three days later, Pectoris Glamm recovered enough to tell his story.

The morning of his collapse, the

THE WAITER'S WAIT.

"Angina!" his face was deathly pale. "Pectoris! What is it?" Instantly she saw that something was the matter and rushed over to where he stood leaning up against the door.

Such a weary, disappointed, lifeless look had never been seen on a man's face.

The Daily Novelette

THE WAITER'S WAIT.

"Angina!" his face was deathly pale. "Pectoris! What is it?" Instantly she saw that something was the matter and rushed over to where he stood leaning up against the door.

Such a weary, disappointed, lifeless look had never been seen on a man's face.

Never had a human countenance depicted such misery.

"Great heavens!" Angina cried out, desperately, as she caught him while he dropped.

Three days later, Pectoris Glamm recovered enough to tell his story.

The morning of his collapse, the

THE WAITER'S WAIT.

"Angina!" his face was deathly pale. "Pectoris! What is it?" Instantly she saw that something was the matter and rushed over to where he stood leaning up against the door.

Such a weary, disappointed, lifeless look had never been seen on a man's face.

Never had a human countenance depicted such misery.

"Great heavens!" Angina cried out, desperately, as she caught him while he dropped.

Three days later, Pectoris Glamm recovered enough to tell his story.

The morning of his collapse, the

THE WAITER'S WAIT.

"Angina!" his face was deathly pale. "Pectoris! What is it?" Instantly she saw that something was the matter and rushed over to where he stood leaning up against the door.

Such a weary, disappointed, lifeless look had never been seen on a man's face.

The Daily Novelette

THE WAITER'S WAIT.

"Angina!" his face was deathly pale. "Pectoris! What is it?" Instantly she saw that something was the matter and rushed over to where he stood leaning up against the door.

Such a weary, disappointed, lifeless look had never been seen on a man's face.

Never had a human countenance depicted such misery.

"Great heavens!" Angina cried out, desperately, as she caught him while he dropped.

Three days later, Pectoris Glamm recovered enough to tell his story.

The morning of his collapse, the

THE WAITER'S WAIT.

"Angina!" his face was deathly pale. "Pectoris! What is it?" Instantly she saw that something was the matter and rushed over to where he stood leaning up against the door.

THE GAZETTE'S PAGE OF SPORTS

BADGERS AND ILLINI ARE EVENLY MATCHED

(By Associated Press.)
Urbana, Ill., Oct. 25.—Illinois and Wisconsin met in a game here today that would put one of the football dynasties out of the running for the "big ten" conference championship. Illinois hopes were raised when it was ruled that Jack Crangle, 195 pound fullback, was eligible, but so closely did the teams appear to be matched that no one would hazard a guess as to the final score. The Illinois eleven in its previous games this season humbled two conference opponents, while Wisconsin was victor in its only previous conference contest. The probable lineups:

ILLINOIS POSITION WISCONSIN
Rachle ..... 10 ..... Weston
Ingwersen ..... 10 ..... Scott
Lundquist ..... 10 ..... Carpenter
Dopler ..... 10 ..... Bunge
Blender ..... 10 ..... Myers
Mohr ..... 10 ..... Davesy
Fletcher ..... 10 ..... Gould
Carney ..... 10 ..... Sunde
R. Fletcher ..... 10 ..... Jacob
Crangle ..... 10 ..... Jacob

Gophers Seek Revenge.
Minneapolis, Oct. 25.—The University of Minnesota football team scored its only victory over Iowa here today. Last year Iowa scored its only victory over Minnesota and the Gophers were determined to make up for the defeat.

EASTERN ELEVEN IN HARD GAMES TODAY

New York.—Defeats for some of the larger college football teams are among today's possibilities.
Colgate will face Princeton at Princeton with shutout victories to her credit over both Brown and Cornell, a record far more impressive than that of Princeton, which barely escaped defeat at the hands of Lafayette.
Boston college will journey to West Point to play the army eleven. Harvard appears to have little to fear from the University of Virginia, and Yale should hold Tufts at Yale, but her margin of safety is not so great as to permit much excitement.
The University of Pittsburgh will face another strong opponent in Georgia Tech at Pittsburgh.
The navy also will face a real test in meeting Bucknell at Annapolis.
Cornell and Dartmouth will meet in New York City and, while the Yale eleven can be noted on to battle valiantly against the New Hampshire machine, Dartmouth appears in the light of logical winner.
The other principal games of the day in the east follow:
Lafayette at Pennsylvania, Amherst at Columbia, Washington and Stinson at Syracuse, Norwich at Brown, Johns Hopkins at Swarthmore, Union at Wesleyan, Hamilton at Williams, New York State Aggies at Rutgers.

Get the habit of reading the classified ads—it will pay you.
Shop in the Gazette before you

BILLIARD TITLE CLINCHED BY HOPPE

Cue Tourney Standing
W. L. H. B. A.
Hoppe ..... 5 0 104 50
Cochran ..... 4 2 285 44-4-0
Schaefer ..... 3 2 155 50
Morningstar ..... 3 2 140 32-2-8
Yamada ..... 2 3 115 22-1-2
Sutton ..... 2 4 148 50-3-5
Slosson ..... 0 6 95 16-10-12

New York, Oct. 25.—Walker Cochran defeated Jack Schaefer last night, 400 to 257, and thereby paved the way for Willie Hoppe to win the national 18.2 ball line billiard championship. Hoppe has already won five games and has only to play Schaefer tonight. Even if Hoppe loses tonight, he will win the title. For nine innings Walker Cochran won last night. His average was 26 to 10-16 and his high runs were 158, 99 and 23. Schaefer played poorly and averaged only 15 to 14. His best effort netted him a high run of 95 in the seventh inning. It was his second defeat of the tournament.

In the tenth inning, however, Cochran ran 257, unfinished. This run establishes a new world's record for championship play. It shatters the record run of 246 made by Maurice Vignaux, the late Frenchman, in Paris back in 1885. The world's record is 307, held jointly by Hoppe, Schaefer and Cochran.
As for the outcome of the game, Cochran won, 400 to 117. His other high runs were 48 and 65, and his average an even 40. Slosson's high runs were 43, 23 and 22. Koji Yamada defeated George E. Sutton, 400 to 356. Two high runs near the end of the match, 105 in the sixteenth inning and 115 in the seventeenth, were instrumental in the Jap's victory.
Champion Willie Hoppe defeated George Slosson in the late afternoon game by a score of 400 to 133. Hoppe's average was 44 to 4-0, and his three high runs were 108, 97 and 78. Slosson's average was 17 to 7, with high runs of 76, 47 and 14.

Thus did Slosson go through the tourney without a victory, losing six straight games.

MANY GO TO DELAVAN TODAY TO SEE GAME

The local high school football team is this afternoon battling the team of the Delavan State School for the Deaf and Dumb at the Delavan field. The players have been put through stiff practice by Coach Lewis, and are hoping to return tonight with a victory to their credit. The team left for Delavan shortly after noon in cars. A number of cars filled with enthusiastic rooters followed them over. The line-up will probably be: Hager, r. b.; Kinney, l. b.; Sullivan, t. c.; Grisdley, t. c.; Marquardt, r. c.; Kinney, l. b.; Sullivan, t. c.; Grisdley, t. c.; Marquardt, r. c. A mass meeting was held at the high school last night, which the entire student body attended. Cheerleader Harry Pierce warmed them up with a few yells and some of the high school songs were sung.

British Flyweight Champion Coming Here

(By International News.)
New York, Oct. 25.—Jimmy Wilde, the English flyweight champion, is on his way to this country. Accompanied by his wife and three of his seven children, the popular Briton

'BABE' RUTH DEMANDS $20,000 NEXT YEAR

Boston, Oct. 25.—George ("Babe") Ruth, world champion home run hitter of the Boston Americans, said before leaving for Los Angeles last night that he would demand $20,000 salary next year.
"I will not play with the Red Sox," he declared, "unless I get $20,000. I feel that I made a bad move last year when I signed a three years' contract to play for $30,000. The Boston club, realized much on my value and I think that I am entitled to twice as much as my contract calls for."

H. S. Football Rooters Hold Pep Meeting before Game

At the close of school last evening a mass meeting of the high school students was held for the purpose of arousing interest in the game with Delavan which was played this afternoon.
Leo Powers, captain of the team, said a few words about the work which the team has been doing. Elliott Dabson, also a member of the team, expressed the confidence which the fellows had of winning the game today.
The coach, G. E. Zimmerman, responded to the call and praised the team.
Harry Pierce, cheer leader led the students in the school yells.
"Don't send my boy to Stoughton!" sung by the students closed the meeting.

left England some time ago and is scheduled to arrive here today. He has planned a sight-seeing trip which will take him to the far western states. Wilde will make his debut in an American ring on the night of Feb. 3, when he meets a formidable opponent in a 12-round bout at the proposed National Sporting club of New York.

New York.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

ALBANY

(By Gazette Correspondent.)
Albany, Oct. 25.—The body of the late Miss Mary Warren, who died in Los Angeles, Calif., will arrive here this evening. A short funeral will be held from the home of her cousin, Dr. J. A. Nichols, tomorrow afternoon. Deceased formerly lived in Albany where she was born. She has been ill in health for about three years but only recently took to her bed. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Grace Hill, Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Nell Smith of Dakota, and many other relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis and daughter shopped in Evansville, Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Bowman and family of Madison visited his brother here Sunday.
Miss Bessie Hubert has returned from Rochester, Minn., where she had an operation for gonor. J. Baumgartner, who has been ill with appendicitis is again able to be out.

High Grade Potatoes Are Kept by Farmers for Seed

(By Associated Press.)
Shawano, Oct. 24.—Because of the excellence in quality of the potato crop in Shawano county this year, few farmers are disposing of any great quantity of what they have raised, preferring to use the even-sized, disease-free "spuds" which have taken several years to develop, for seed purposes. Offers as high as 3 per bushel have been refused here for the potatoes, which are of three varieties: rural New Yorkers, Triumphs and Green Mountains.

Harry Whitcomb transacted business in Chicago, during the week. E. M. Knapp was in Madison on business last Tuesday.
Frank Popantz has sold his farm to A. Furinton and has purchased the residence property of Sylvester Furinton south of town. Mr. and Mrs. Furinton intend storing their goods and will spend the winter with her brother and sister at Eugene, Oregon. Albert Matikow has purchased the old William Tiley and Kotter property owned by Anson Edwards.

New York.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

CHAPPLE TO SPEAK ON 'AFTERGLOW OF WAR'

This evening at 8 o'clock, Joe Chapple, noted writer and lecturer, will give a lecture on "The Afterglow Effects of the War" at the Congregational church.
Mr. Chapple is well known in this city having spoken here upon different occasions, the last being before the Twilight club last winter.
The Rotary club has been the means of bringing Mr. Chapple to the city this evening. Boy Scouts have been selling the tickets. Profunds of the lecture will go to the Boy Scout fund.
Because of the lateness of the hour that Mr. Chapple is scheduled to arrive the dinner which was planned in his honor by the Rotary club, has been called off.
Mr. Chapple comes here from Indianapolis.

EDUCATIONAL BONUS LAW IS EXPLAINED

The American legion has undertaken to educate the ex-service men of the state regarding the educational bonus law.
"Every man who served Uncle Sam ought to understand what this law does for him," state Commander Davis. "It gives him $1080 for his education in any school that is listed—and there is a long list of them."
"Compared with the cash bonus law which gives him $10 for each month in service, it is way and beyond anything the soldier could ask. He can get an education, learn any vocation he likes at the expense of the state."
"He can earn additional money. The great industries of Milwaukee pay from $35 to $55 per month for their time. He can study the rest. This $55 to $100 a month which results from his job and the state's allowance of $30 per month will pay all his bills in school and leave him money to put in the bank."
"It's too bad to shut him off with $50 or $100 when he can get so much more. No matter if he has applied for the cash bonus he can withdraw his application and get in under the educational bonus law if he acts now."

bushel have been refused here for the potatoes, which are of three varieties: rural New Yorkers, Triumphs and Green Mountains.

New York.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.